A PRAYER OF PRAISE FOR GOD'S MERCY

FIRST READING

Jeremiah 31:7-9

The Lord declares himself to be the Father of Israel.

SECOND READING

Hebrews 5:1-6

Christ was made high priest by God.

GOSPEL READING

Mark 10:46-52

Jesus restores sight to the blind man, Bartimaeus.

Family Connection

loyolapress.com/our-catholic-faith/

Today's Gospel offers us a powerful example of faith and persistence in prayer. Those around him rebuked Bartimaeus for his efforts to attract Jesus' attention. When silenced by the crowd, however, Bartimaeus called out all the more. He is persistent and bold in his confidence that Jesus will show mercy on him and do what he asks. His persistence and great confidence that Jesus would help him reminds us of the confidence with which our children bring to us their needs. In their faith and trust we can find an example of the attitude with which we might approach God in prayer.

As a family, recall a request that has been made repeatedly by one family member to another. Talk about why the request continues to be made if the answer continues to be no. Then read together today's Gospel, Mark 10:46-52. After reading the Gospel, pose questions such as these to your family: Why must Bartimaeus be persistent in calling out to Jesus? (Some people in the crowd are telling him to be quiet.) What does Bartimaeus do when some try to stop him? (He calls out to Jesus all the more.) When Jesus stops and calls for him, what does Jesus do and say? (He restores Bartimaeus's sight; Jesus tells Bartimaeus his faith has saved him.) When we pray, God wants us to be so confident he will help us that we don't permit anyone to keep us from bringing our needs to God in prayer. Invite family members to identify the things they need most from God. Pray these prayers of petition together as a family, confident that God will hear and answer your prayers. Respond to each petition, "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on us." Conclude by praying the Glory Be to the Father.

Married to a Post Abortive Woman?

If you love a woman who experienced abortion before you met her, you might find your current relationship with her is being impacted by some of her symptoms. These can include fear of pregnancy and parenting, trouble with intimacy, rejection of the love you try to give her because she does not feel worthy of your tenderness and affection. We invite you to explore offering the retreat to your wife as a gift and assure her that you would like to accompany her as she goes to deal with this painful event in her history.

If God is calling you to hope and healing OR to minister to those in need of hope and healing here in our local community, please contact Lisa Petersen (509-421-7847 or lisapetersen65@gmail.com) for more information. Your call will be kept completely confidential.

TEAM UP to CLEAN UP

November 19th at 9:00 am we need volunteers to help clean the hall kitchen. Coffee and snacks provided. Come for whatever amount of time you can.

Child Care

Childcare will not be available on Saturday December 1st and Sunday, December 2nd in preparation of our Holy Family Gala. This will allow setup and cleanup. Thank you for understanding.

God In My Chaos

<https://lifeteen.com>

By Katie Gray

Can I paint you a picture for a minute? Not one of those fancy, artistic and creative pictures, but the real life chaos that sometimes invades my day. I'm sure you've been there. Whether in your personal, ministry or spiritual lives, "those" days happen.

It was a Monday, you know those typical Mondays. I felt dominated by my to-do list, an overwhelming feeling and a lack of time that I could not shake. I had my normal to-do list but for some reason the amount of incoming emails, calls and needs that took priority consumed my entire day. Then traffic was nuts because it was raining for probably the 12th day in a row in Saint Louis. As I walked into the pre-school to grab my oldest, she fell in the playground. In the mix of cleaning up blood and putting Dora band-aids on skinned knees, my keys fell off the ring which led to a 20-minute search for keys. Did I mention it was raining?

The house became a disaster within minutes of entering it. In an attempt to make dinner, unload the dishwasher, and read through the pile of mail, it happened. I reached for something with my baby in a sling and knocked a glass bowl to the ground. It shattered. And for the first time ALL day, I stopped in my tracks.

I hadn't stood still all day or taken a moment to BE or acknowledge the gift of another day. I shamefully admit that once my feet hit the ground at 5:34 a.m. I never once thought about, thanked, or sat with God. I didn't give Him a thought in my day.

Do you ever have those days where you think that you can do everything? Maybe you're like me where sometimes you forget to give your day over to Him. Often I base the success of the day on what I can control and accomplish, not what God was doing. He was doing great things and offering me grace through the chaos. It took a shattered bowl for me to stop and realize it.

My husband cleaned up the glass bowl pieces while I went into the other room feeding the baby a bottle. I quietly sat, closed my eyes, and asked God for forgiveness. There was an overwhelming sense of thankfulness that I could start over, because of how great He loves me. Thank you, Jesus!

I have no idea what your day looks like as you read this. May the fact that you are reading this blog be your "glass bowl" message from the Holy Spirit in your week to wake up and refocus on God. It's not about what we can do, but instead what He can do through us, even in the most chaotic moments that life brings!

In Mark's gospel, Jesus' death is not something that takes Jesus by surprise. He freely goes to Jerusalem where he knows that death awaits him. Along the way, Jesus tries to tell his disciples that he must suffer and die in order for God's glory to be revealed.

Jesus is our savior. Jesus died for our sins and three days later God raised him from the dead. Through the suffering and death of Jesus we have gained the glorious resurrection and our salvation.

Family Questions:

- What does a cross or crucifix remind us of?
- Does recalling the suffering and death of Jesus help us to ask Jesus for help when we are hurting?
- How can we help others who are suffering?

THURSDAYS
10:30AM-12 PM

Come join us Thursday mornings as we take a look at

The Gospel of Matthew. How does the author of Matthew portray Jesus? He is the Messiah, the fulfillment of Old Testament prophecy, whose words and actions show a power and authority greater than any before Him and lay the very foundations of the Church.

This study on Matthew is facilitated by Ree Kearns using materials from Catholic Way Bible Study with Lavinia Spirito.

Fee: $10 (scholarships provided). To register, please call Amy at 966-5344 or email at amy.baumgardner@holyfamilyyakima.org.

If childcare is needed please call as soon as possible.

Walk-ins are always welcome!
