"2019 DIOCESAN Annual Catholic Appeal"

Holy Family Catholic Church

Dear Parish Family,

Have you filled out your envelope to support the pastoral work of Bishop Tyson in the Diocese of Yakima through the 2019 Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA)? I want to thank the 82 families who already either renewed their commitment or are for the first-time being part of this effort. Thank you for your commitment to make our Catholic faith stronger and forever present in Central Washington, your generosity and sense of Church is really an inspiration.

Now, 82 families represent roughly the 6.35% of the 1,292 registered families at Holy Family who have answered God's call to trust Him with their livelihood. I would like to renew my invitation to each single family to consider a gift to the 2019 ACA; I would not ask you to do something I would not do myself. I am very hopeful that this year we will reach our "Pastoral Goal", the 100% participation of parishioners. Through this participation I will know that we understand we are not an isolated parish, but a Catholic one supporting the spreading of the faith at every level; local, Diocesan, National and International.

For all of you who are still discerning your support to this effort, I am presenting you with some questions that might help you in giving you one or more reasons to support the 2019 ACA, please prayerfully consider them;

- Do I know anyone who is currently in seminary preparing for the Priesthood?
- Do we have any Deacons serving us here in our parish who have been part of the Diocesan program for Deacon's Formation?
- Does our parish have an Adult Faith Formation Director who uses the resources offered by the Diocese?
- Do any of our parishioners have children who are college students, taking advantage of the services of Campus Ministries?
- Do I know a Catholic who has been helped by the Diocesan Marriage Tribunal in petitioning the Church for an annulment?
- Have members of the parish staff or I ever used the resources available at the Diocesan Library/Media Center?
- Does Holy Family have a Religious Ed. Director who uses the resources available from the diocesan Parish Life & Faith Formation offices?
- Does Holy Family have a Liturgy Committee who calls on the Diocese with questions and for guidance?
- Do we have a Youth Ministry Program which benefits from the formation and support services provided by the Diocese?
- Do we have any parishioners, or families of parishioners, who are in jail or prison and are being ministered to by Catholic Prison Ministries?
- Do our parish ministries support family life (such as marriage preparation, parenting support, divorced and widowed support) which call on the Diocese for resources and aid?
- Does our parish or other in the Diocese have a Catholic School, aided by the Diocesan Schools Office?
- Have any of our parishioners attended Marriage Preparation classes provided by the Diocese? Have any of us ever attended any Marriage or Engaged Encounters?
- Do I know retired priests who have special medical needs? .....

Those are just examples of the many more ministries and formation programs we support when we give to the ACA. Again, if you are already giving to the appeal, thank you for your valuable support. Please continue to do so to help our growing Church in Yakima. If you have not been part of this the appeal in the past, you may have found a reason or two to start by the way you answered these questions. While we ask that you give generously as God has given to you, gifts of any size are both important and welcomed. Thank you again for your generosity and support to the 2019 ACA.

Greetings and Blessings,

Rev. César Vega M.

A PRAYER OF PRAISE TO GOD WHO RAISES UP THE LOWLY

FIRST READING
1 King 17:10-16
Through Elijah, a widow and her son are blest with enough flour and oil to supply them for a year.

SECOND READING
Hebrews 9:24-28
Christ died once to take away sin; he will return again to bring salvation.

GOSPEL READING
Mark 12:3-44
Jesus notices a poor widow's offering and commends her great sacrifice.

Family Connection
loyolapress.com/our-catholic-faith/

Today's Gospel leads us to think about our family's financial contributions to our parish community, the diocese, other Church-sponsored organizations, and other charitable organizations. Good stewardship invites us to share our treasure as well as our time and talent. Sometimes, however, decisions about a family's charitable giving are made without our children's knowledge. Yet we teach more when we invite all family members to be aware of how we contribute to our Church and to other charitable organizations.

As you gather as a family, talk about your family's financial contributions to your parish and to other Church activities. If your family supports other charitable organizations, you might talk about these as well. Talk together about why it is important for us to share our resources with these organizations. Read today's Gospel, Mark 12:41-44. Talk about what Jesus observes about the generosity of the poor widow. Talk also about ways in which your family might also make a sacrificial gift to support your parish or other charitable organization. (Perhaps your family might choose not to go out to dinner but to contribute the money to your parish). Invite all family members to participate in the decision about what action you will take and which organization you will support with your contribution. Conclude in prayer together asking God to help your family be generous like the poor widow in today's Gospel. Pray together the Peace Prayer of St. Francis.

Take Prayer Personally

https://lifeteen.com By Avera Maria Santo

Prayer didn't play a very big role in my life until I hit my early 20s. Going to Catholic school through high school helped me learn how to recite everything at Mass, as well as the words to all the formal prayers like the Hail Mary and the Our Father; but still, I wasn't really sure how to truly pray from the heart.

I knew that I wanted to develop a personal prayer life. I mean, I'd heard that Padre Pio "Prayer is the oxygen of the soul," quote enough times to be interested… But I just didn't know how to start!

I'm 21 years old and although my prayer life has definitely deepened and grown since high school, I received some advice a few weeks ago from a very holy priest that transformed how I think about prayer, and more specifically, how I relate to both Jesus and Mary.

When I sat down with this priest, one of the things that I asked him was how to go about praying the rosary. I really admire Mary and truly did desire to grow closer to her, but the rosary was extremely difficult for me to pray.

Making Mary Personal

"Well, what do you admire about Mary?" the priest asked.

This made me think. Sometimes, because we know Jesus and Mary to be these beings up in heaven, we forget that they were both human, that they've experienced what I've experienced, know how I feel, and can enter into my personal reality.

He went on to say, "It may help you to reflect on a particular virtue of Mary as you pray the mysteries of the rosary."

Prior to my meeting, I'd actually heard a couple of my girlfriends talking about this and how beneficial it was for their prayer. They talked about how it made Mary seem so much more relatable, so much more human. At the same time, though, it gave them a model to follow, a model of humanity totally fulfilled, a model they wanted to mirror in their own lives. After hearing father mention it, I just knew I had to try it.

There are a number of ways to enter into this type of personal reflection. For example, let's say you admire our lady's femininity. When you're meditating on the Crucifixion, ask her what it was like to be a woman at the foot of the cross. If you're meditating on the Annunciation from the joyful mysteries, you can ask her what it was like to be a woman facing such a call at that time in her life.

Making Jesus Personal

The remarkable thing about this type of personal prayer is that it doesn't just apply to Mary — we can enter into this type of prayer with God Himself in the person of Jesus. We can relate to Him on a personal level, by reflecting on particular aspects of who He is, in order to grow in love with Him through prayer.

There was a period of time during which I wondered if I would ever be married. During that time, I loved to reflect on Jesus as Christ the Bridegroom, the one true love of my heart. It helped me not to be so consumed with finding a husband and rather, seek complete satisfaction from the love of the divine Bridegroom.

The really wonderful thing about making our prayer personal is that God can use it to enter into our lives in a personal way.

At this time in my life, I love to look at Christ as Emmaunuel, "God is with us." God is truly present among us! I've entered into deep reflection on this, especially through the gift of Adoration — Christ's true presence in the Eucharist. That's what speaks the loudest to me in my life right now and God is using it to speak to me personally.

God desires a personal relationship with us. This means that He intends to connect with us in a personal and real way. God reaches down to us in our unique humanity and calls us into His divine life in a way that's accessible to each of us through prayer!

Never be afraid to approach God with whatever you're experiencing. Your prayers don't have to be perfect, they just have to be prayed.

In the gospel reading today a poor widow gives everything she has. Jesus watches many rich people put large sums of money into the treasury. But a poor widow puts in just a penny because that is all she has. Jesus tells his disciples that others gave of their abundance but this woman gave of her poverty. The point is made that the poor woman is humble and most generous.

Jesus calls attention to the poor widow in order to teach his disciples what it means to follow him. Jesus knew that his disciples were concerned about material possessions and success and this was keeping them from understanding true discipleship. The widow shows what it takes to be truly great in the Reign of God.

Today's gospel reading suggests that the amount that a person gives does not matter. What does matter is the spirit and intention of the giver. The poor widow put her trust in God and gave all that she had. She gave everything knowing that God would provide for her every need.
