The Baptism of the Lord - January 13, 2019

Dear Holy Family Parishioners-

Happy New Year! It is hard for me to believe that we have already reached 2019. I took some time over the break to reflect on the last year and recognized the important part you each have played in our school. Without you we would not be where we are, and all the new and exciting things that have occurred have been humbling to watch. I look forward to 2019 and what it has to offer Christ the Teacher Catholic school students, staff, families and community. With you we will continue to do amazing things for our students, staff, Parishes and community.

During the month of December our school participated in a variety of community service projects. Thank you to all of you that helped to support those projects. As for whether or not Mrs. Remillard will be dressing as a donut, providing each student with a donut and a free dress day...we are still waiting to hear. We still have a few weeks left before the competition is complete. If you would like to make a donation please visit the following link <https://www.crowdrise.com/o/en/campaign/CTCS-KIMA-kids-for-cans>. Please help our students achieve their goal!

Mardi Gras it is right around the corner, and as we prepare for our biggest fundraiser of the year I ask that you consider attending, spread the word, and help to ensure that this fundraiser is a huge success. Tickets are currently on sale and in order to purchase tickets or make a donation please visit the Christ the Teacher Catholic School Website at ctcsyakima.org. We have our live auction items selected, so what we really need are sponsors for live auction to help us purchase the trips/dinners/etc. If you or your business would like to help sponsor or co-sponsor one of our amazing live auction items, please e-mail Katie Register at kathleenregister@gmail.com. We also have tables for sale for groups or businesses, and sponsor packages available as well! Please consider attending or celebrating with us on March 2 in Queen Gym.

Family Connection

loyolapress.com/our-catholic-faith/

Every family has a unique identity that is defined by the behaviors, attitudes, and expectations that govern a family's daily life. This identity is influenced by the family history of the parents, but each family's expression of this history is unique. In today's Gospel, we learn that Jesus' behavior, attitudes, and expectations were governed by his identity as God's beloved Son. In our Baptism, we were made children of this same heavenly Father. This identity as members of the family of God, and as brothers and sisters of Jesus, also shapes our family's daily life.

As you gather as a family, identify some of the expectations and behaviors that govern your family life by answering the question, "What are some of the things that make our family life unique?" Celebrate these things about your family life. Read today's Gospel, Luke 3:15-16,21-22. Observe that Jesus' identity as the Beloved Son of the Father governed his behaviors, attitudes, and expectations. Recall that at our Baptism we were made children of this same heavenly Father. How does this identity as a member of the family of God govern and shape our family life? Conclude in prayer together that we will remain faithful to our baptismal identity as children of God and as brothers or sisters of Jesus. Conclude by praying together the Lord's Prayer.

SEMINARIANS!

Holy Family Parish Camp Hope Ministry

Brrr! It's getting colder!

Guests and staff have moved back to the Birch Street site. With the weather getting colder, the Holy Family Camp Hope Ministry was asked to help provide for some additional sources of heat. Due to restrictions from the fire marshal, very few sources of heat are allowed. Mike Kay, the CH director, has found a good one! These 12 ceramic heaters with fans purchased by HFCH Ministry have allowed the staff to add considerable warmth to the tents!

Thank you God, and thank you Holy Family Parish donors! 1 John, chapter 3, verses 16-18 are so apt to this ministry.

HF has set up a separate bank account where people may donate to 'Holy Family-Camp Hope'. These funds will be administered by HF parishioners and will be

Is Dating in High School Worth it?

By William Green | lifeteen.com

You are made to know and be known. You are also made for love and to love. In every human heart, there exists a sincere desire for these two desires to be satisfied. Often this leads us into a great adventure in our lives — one where we learn what love is and what it isn't, and how we desire to be fully known and to know another.

We're wired for relationship which means... we're made to date! However, we cannot begin to be known and to know another, as well be loved and love another, without first understanding who we are. In brief, if you ain't prayin', you ain't datin.' Plain and simple, just the way I like my bagels. Seriously though: it is in knowing and living into a life with Christ which we begin to understand who we truly are and how we are to live that out.

Dating is awesome... with the right mindset. You must develop that mindset yourself, through patience and prayer. It's the type of mindset that gives us the courage we need to allow God to write our love story and He can only do that when we live in relationship with Him, through prayer and sacrifice.

Now I'm sure you're beginning to wonder, "Hey William, all this is fine and dandy and all, but what are some practical ways I can figure out if I should be dating?" I'm a big philosophy guy who believes in giving you a map to lead you to the truth instead of flat out giving you answers. Deal with it. So to answer your question, here are some questions you might want to start with to help you determine whether or not dating in high school is worth it for you:

Are you praying?

I want to really hammer this point home. If you aren't praying, any relationship you're in will flop. Talking to God for just ten minutes a day, reading a chapter from the Bible, or praying the rosary are all good things which continually remind you that you are His. Everything you are and have is God's. Therefore, through prayer, we are better able to allow Him to write our stories with His penmanship; which is ultimately a lot lot better than you or I could ever dream of.

Do you really know that you are loved intimately and personally by the God of the universe and

He is continually willing you into existence by His love?

Well, you do now! Seriously, know your worth. You are a child of God, do not allow anyone to look at you or treat you any less. To the young ladies reading this: look to Jesus, and you will begin to recognize men who desire to live their lives like Him. Your dignity as a daughter of God and your chastity are treasures to be withheld and respected. If a man doesn't respect your dignity or chastity, don't waste your time on him.

To the young men reading this. You are man enough. Let your character and your virtue speak louder than your mouth. To be a man is to follow Jesus to the cross. We do this by choosing the good, and dying to self.

Are you faithful to your current commitments?

If you can't commit to going to Mass weekly, trying your best in school, and praying for 10 minutes daily, you probably shouldn't commit to another person. It is our actions that reflect our interior lives. If you cannot commit to the basic actions required in your current state of life, then you cannot fully commit to another person.

What are you willing to give up?

We are over infatuated with incredibly lousy examples of sacrifice in love. Romeo and Juliet, for instance; they kill themselves because they think that the other is dead and they cannot live without the other. Let God write your love story. Follow God's will, not your own. In my personal experience, just by praying the little prayer of, "God if these feelings are from you, please let them grow. But Lord if they are not, please take them away," God has moved in powerful ways in my life.

God will always come through. The question posed above is not merely about what you have to give up to better love another. But it is a dangerous proposition, to prepare you to give up any relationship with another that the Lord might call you out of. By being open to the reality that you will go where God desires, God will trust you with a deeper clarity of where to go next.

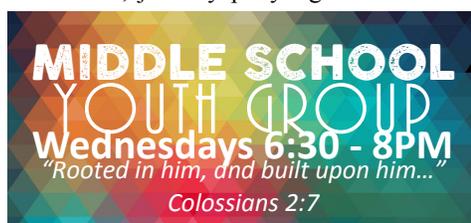

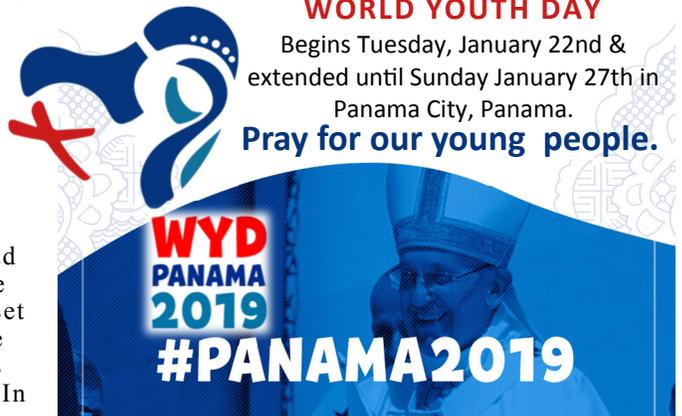

In short, pray. Dating in high school can be a positive experience, but it's not essential. You can not date, you can casually date, you can have a girl or boyfriend. But above all, be open to God — He's the only aspect of your life that is truly essential. Trust God. Also, take it easy. A date is a date so treat it as such — as nothing more than an opportunity to know someone else a bit better — not practice for a marriage proposal. A boy/girlfriend is also just that. A boy or a girlfriend — not a fiance or a spouse.

Grow together, challenge one another, but keep Christ at the center. In conclusion: pray, take it easy, trust God, and pray again.

The Baptism of the Lord - January 13, 2019

Sacraments/Faith Formation

Children's Ministries:

PRESCHOOL - GRADE 5

Today the Church celebrates the baptism of the Lord. The baptism of Jesus shows his humanity. We hear about the humanity of Jesus throughout the Christmas season. The celebration of the baptism of Jesus marks the end of the Christmas season. After Jesus is baptized, he begins his public ministry. Today's gospel helps us understand the meaning of the sacrament of Baptism for all Christians.

In this gospel, Luke presents the baptism of Jesus. Jesus comes to John to be baptized. John questions Jesus at first because he thinks that Jesus should be the one baptizing him. Jesus tells John to baptize him in order to fulfill what he has come to do. When Jesus comes up from the water, the heavens open and Jesus is revealed as God's Son, the beloved

Family Questions:

- What does the baptism of Jesus tell us about Jesus?
- How was Jesus' baptism like our baptism?
- What does Baptism help us to do?
