Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time - March 3, 2019

Dear parish family,

Lenten Greetings! We are about to begin a very especial journey as parish community. Starting this Wednesday by humbly receiving the blessed Ashes, we will find ourselves responding to the call from Mother Church into our Annual 40 Day Retreat of LENT. Through Prayer, Fasting, Penance and Almsgiving we will make the proper spiritual preparations to joyfully celebrate the promise of Resurrection at Easter.

Father Mike I., Deacons John C. and Jim K. and I extend an invitation to all of you and your family to attend the different opportunities during the upcoming Lenten Season. We begin our Lenten Journey/Retreat with Ash Wednesday on March 6th; we will have Vespers (Evening Prayer; the prayer of the universal Church for evenings), on all Tuesdays of Lent at 5:30pm followed by benediction; on all Fridays of Lent we will have Stations of the Cross at 5:30pm and right after the Stations we will have "Soup and Bread". This year during soup and bread we will have presentations on "The Mass", a series from Bishop Robert Barron that will help us enhance our appreciation for the celebration for the Eucharistic. I want to thank the small groups/communities and many of you parishioners for undertaking again this year this ministry of providing us with soup and bread.

We will also have The Little Black Book, six minutes a day reflections/prayer booklet based on traditions, the saints and 'lectio divina', for Lent and all the way through the Second Sunday of Easter. I hope you find this booklet useful during this Liturgical Season and as a great help for "God's Program in your spiritual rehab during Lent."

Please join Fr. James Lothamer, PSS for "Mass Matters. . . So They Say" our Lenten Mission on March 25, 26 and 27 for morning and evening sessions. Fr. Jim a Sulpician priest, pastor and seminary teacher. Will present us with clear and uncomplicated presentations, all designed for all of us as we want to deepen our knowledge and involvement in our Catholic faith. Fr. Jim will be the principal celebrant and homilist for the weekend Masses prior to our mission.

The Operation Rice Bowl, is an outreach ministry from Catholic Relief Services, a part of our almsgiving to show solidarity and help those who have less; you will find a rice bowl in the bins, just put in it all the spare change (and checks) and bring it to the church at the end of the Lenten Season.

On Tuesday April 9th all the priests of the Diocese have our reflection day, we come together to pray, be reconciled and renew our priestly vows. Bishop then blesses the oils (of the sick, of catechumens and Chrism), which we will use for the sacraments throughout the year. Please join us at St. Paul Cathedral at 7pm for the Chrism Mass.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation during Lent is a great opportunity we have, to make a good preparation for the celebration of Easter, we will celebrate the Lent Penance Services on Wed., Apr 10th @ 4 & 7pm (for the holies) and Thurs Apr 11th, 4 & 7pm (for the saints). You can find all this information and the schedule for Holy Week in the pamphlet that was mailed to you and on our web page at www.holyfamilyyakima.org

Please continue to pray for our Catechumen (non-baptized) and Candidates (baptized). During Lent our Catechumens and Candidates will come before the Church community asking for your support and prayers. These individuals are in their final stage of preparation for full membership into the Catholic Church, which will take place at Easter Vigil. By the way if you know someone in your family or a friend that is interested in the Catholic faith invite them to join our community by attending the RCIA program; please call Amy for more information.

Lastly, I would like to urge each of you to answer the invitation of Holy Mother Church, to join all the faithful in the whole world, on our Forty-Day Lenten Retreat. Each of us are called to be part of the Eucharistic Community of believers, sent by Jesus, to live out our Baptismal promises in service to the Church; the body of Christ. On our Lenten spiritual journey may we hear this call and experience a conversion of heart and renewed strength in our journey towards our heavenly Father. After our Forty-Day retreat, may we all come together to celebrate the Holy Triduum and the glory of Our Lord's Resurrection on Easter Sunday.

Lenten Greetings and Blessings,

Family Connection
loyolapress.com/our-catholic-faith/

Jesus' parables in this week's Gospel are a reminder of the importance of continued learning, prayer and reflection, and humility in our discipleship. We shine God's light in the world when we are "lit from within" with God's grace, willing to examine our own conscience and recognize our own need for transformation through Jesus. As busy parents responsible for our children's physical, emotional, and spiritual growth, we may sometimes be challenged to find time and energy to care for ourselves and attend to our own spiritual growth. Yet doing so can improve our family relationships and help us guide our children in their faith. We can be reminded of the simple safety instruction we hear when flying: to put on our own "spiritual" oxygen mask before helping others.

Gather as a family and spend some time discussing ideas about what it means to be a good disciple. What do we need to learn? How are we to act? How do we treat others? Read aloud today's Gospel, Luke 6:39-45. Discuss what Jesus means when he asks, "Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?" Talk about how we might be tempted to focus on one another's shortcomings without noticing our own and how this might lead to conflict. Point out that part of being a good disciple is focusing on our own behavior. As a family, share ideas for responding as a disciple when you are upset with another family member's words or actions. (For example, taking a cooling off break before talking to the person or praying for help to see if our actions contributed to the conflict and we need to apologize.) Pray that you will grow together in your discipleship and then pray the Lord's Prayer.

Holy Family
Parish Camp Hope Ministry

Recently, 31 residents of Camp Hope completed a CPR and First Aid Certification Course for Adults, Children and Infants. The residents requested the course after a recent emergency at the camp when a resident was found not breathing and in cardiac arrest. Residents assisted staff in saving that person's life that day and wanted to be able to do more. Mike Kay, CH Director, is a certified CPR/First Aid Instructor and gives classes throughout the valley and for the Yakima Nation. God's gifts to each one of us help our fellow man in numerous ways. Thank you so much God!

HF has set up a separate bank account where people may donate to 'Holy Family-Camp Hope'. These funds will be administered by HF parishioners and will be used to purchase needed items for the Camp, located behind the U-Haul warehouse on east Nob Hill Road. Pre-addressed envelopes for donations can be picked up on the information desk in the foyer lobby of HF.

102 THINGS YOU SHOULD REALLY GIVE UP FOR LENT
Lifeteen.com | By Christina Mead

Let's recap. Lent comes along every year. And every year you think you should give up something that will be A) difficult, B) life-changing, and C) creative.

So last year we gave you 25 creative ideas of what to give up for Lent, and 20 weird ideas if you're that kind of person. But deep down I knew I could do better. I could give you more. Because I love you that's why. Don't believe me? Just watch. I present to you 102 things to give up for Lent. I stretched every muscle in my brain to come up with this list for you. Now you absolutely have NO excuse that you "can't think of what to give up for Lent" because I DID ALL THE THINKING FOR YOU. And my head hurts now.

What you should really give up (or take up) for Lent:

1. Snacking between meals.
2. Cracking your knuckles.
3. Plumber's crack.
4. Instagram filters.
5. Being a backseat driver.
6. Listening to music in the car.
7. Texting and driving.
8. Making out.
9. Using emojis to avoid talking about your true feelings.
10. Talking about true feelings through text instead of in person.
11. Not inviting your friends to Mass and Life Night because SCARY! Reputation!
12. Rolling your eyes at your parents.
13. Spitting out your gum on the street, parking lot, sidewalk.
14. Wishing for someone else's life, relationship, or possessions.
15. Complaining.
16. The phrase, "I can't even."
17. Only talking to Jesus when you need something.
18. Only talking to Jesus when you "feel" like it.
19. Wearing clothes that are too tight and draw attention only to your body.
20. Pride. Instead pray the Litany of Humility every day.
21. Being selfish. Give away something every single day, be it time, money, or something you own.
22. Greed. Don't buy anything besides the essentials during Lent. Food. Lent Companion. Transportation costs. Allergy medicine. Bare minimums!
23. Laziness. Give up TV and commit to going to a walk every day and praying the rosary.
24. Gossip. Write 40 affirmation notes (or a note every time you slip up and gossip).
25. Impure thoughts and actions, fast from eating between meals and from sweets. Train your body to be obedient to your will.
26. Saying "God" or "Jesus" outside of a prayer, memorize Ephesians 4:29 and repeat it on the hour, every hour during the day.
27. If you lie, get up. Walking is cool.
28. If you're angry, take up kickboxing.
29. If you're complacent, take up Zumba.
30. If you're my mom, please don't do either.
31. If you're addicted to porn, sign up for CovenantEyes.com.
32. If you occasionally look at porn, sign up for CovenantEyes.com.
33. If you're an emotional eater, keep a food/feelings journal and find your triggers.
34. If you're wasteful, volunteer once a week at a soup kitchen.
35. If you have road rage, don't drive.
36. Just kidding. See #28.
37. If you don't trust God, pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy every day.
38. If you're judgmental, pray for every person you see.
39. If you're vain, give up makeup or your mirror.
40. If you have no idea what sins you struggle with, do an examination of conscience every night.
41. Listen to Fr. Mike's podcasts. He's cool and humble about being cool.
42. Give up tanning. You so pret-taaaayyy... ahead-aaayyy...
43. Watching VHS tapes and not re-winding them.
44. Forgetting to water your plants.
45. Forgetting to wear pants.
46. Fake cleaning your room.
47. Using the word "can't."
48. Using the word "bae."
49. Using words that don't glorify God. See #26.
50. Bad jokes.
51. Trolling online.
52. Being sarcastic.
53. But that's impossible for you so forget it.
54. Oh my gosh I need to stop being sarcastic. Pray for me.
55. Do back to back to back novenas for the Life Teen Staff and Missionaries.
56. Pizza.
57. Gluten.
58. Eating meat.
59. Eating animal products.
60. Talking about your special diet to get attention.
61. Texting the opposite sex to get attention.
62. Sexting.
63. Sending snapchats of strangers.
64. Sending snapchats to strangers.
65. Not smiling at strangers.
66. I'm on a roll with the strangers topic.
67. PIZZA ROLLS. Sorry Tostinos.
68. Not apologizing when you should because it's hard to admit you're wrong.
69. Not going to Confession because it's scary.
70. Not dancing out of the Confessional with the joy of an innocent newborn!
71. Getting your nails done.
72. Making excuses to not go to daily Mass.
73. Thinking about food all during daily Mass.
74. Eating donuts as a reward after daily Mass.
75. Sugar and/or creamer in your coffee.
76. Drinking more than 1 cup of coffee.
77. Underage drinking.
78. Energy drinks.
79. Soda.
80. Buying spiritual books and not reading them.
81. Buying into the idea that RELATIONSHIP GOALS should be like movies and Tumblr pictures.
82. Not reading the lives of the saints because they "might" be boring.
83. Not asking your favorite saints to intercede for you.
84. Taking off your saint medals, saint bracelets, scapular...etc. Leave it on bruh.
85. Leaving Facebook and/or Twitter open while you're doing homework.
86. Checking your phone every 2 minutes. (LOL. You know it's 30 seconds.)
87. Opening the fridge just to look at the same stuff that's been there all day.
88. Telling yourself you're fat.
89. And stupid. And anything less than the truth that you're an amazing beloved child of God.
90. Leaving lights on.
91. Hiding your light under a bushel basket.
92. Not instagraming the shizam out of your bushel basket because it's rare to have one.
93. The basket is metaphorical. #92 was sarcastic. Please go back to #54.
94. Pulling the victim card when things go wrong.
95. Being embarrassed when you need help from a therapist in order to live a happy, full life.
96. Not going to counseling or therapy because you think it means you're weak. (Newsflash, it means you're the opposite — Hulk-like-strong-and-courageous.)
97. Pretending you don't have time to go to Adoration.
98. Pretending you don't have time to pray at home.
99. Staying closed off to the glory of God's presence around you all day 'ery day.
100. Refusing to recognize God in your neighbor.
101. And God in your family. Even the most annoying members. God loves them. How will you?
102. Hiding your faith from those around you. It's Lent. Share what God is doing in your life these 40 days. #Lent

That only took all year for me to come up with this list. I hope it helps. I hope it made you smile. And I hope it blesses your Lent this year.
 I'm praying for you.

Children's Ministries: PRESCHOOL - GRADE 5

The gospel reading contains two parables of Jesus from the Sermon on the Plain. Both of the parables make the same point about the importance of the disciples living a good life by following the teaching of Jesus. Otherwise, one can risk some catastrophe, like falling into a ditch. In the second parable, Jesus uses an absurd example of a beam in one person's eye and a splinter in your eye to make a point that one should make sure they are living right before they correct others. The gospel continues with the example of trees bearing good fruit. This is a clear image of good and healthy things producing good results.

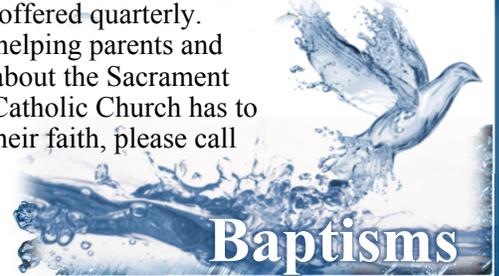

Family Questions:

What is the message of the parable of the wooden beam and the splinter in the eye?
What does it mean to have "goodness in the heart"?
Why is it difficult to see our own faults?

Infant Baptisms take place on the 1st, 3rd & 5th weekends during Mass; and on the 2nd & 4th Sunday in the chapel at 10:15am: Dependent on clergy availability. Parents & Godparents requesting baptism for their child are expected to attend two preparation sessions prior to baptism. To register, and if you need childcare you must call the office beforehand. 509-966-5344

NEXT SESSIONS: MARCH 12-13
