The Great River of Faith

In the RCIA program, we are privileged to witness the mysterious process of conversion in the lives of those called to full communion with the Catholic Church, and it's an awesome sight: folks from different backgrounds and cultural settings who are at different stages of faith development, turn and are drawn into the great river of the faithful which flows down through the centuries. No one can completely comprehend this mysterious process of conversion and yet the "draw," being the Holy Spirit, is real and the results are visible. In this, conversion is like the Sacraments: a visible sign of an invisible grace or reality and, in fact, the Church is the universal sacrament of salvation, "the sign and the instrument of the communion of God and men." How is the Church the instrument of the communion of God and men? By Her liturgy and prayers, through the Deposit of Faith which includes Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition and by the Sacraments, through which Divine Life is dispensed to us.

During the next two months in RCIA, we are learning about the Sacraments, the very heart of our Catholic faith. My mind and prayers are on how to convey to learners the reality of the Sacraments. We ask for your prayers for us, also. Will they see that, as created beings, we are pale shadows compared with our Creator? That His life in us through the Sacraments makes us more substantial and alive and connects us with the real reality of God? That the Sacraments are channels through which we access Grace and the Divine Life lost in the Fall and restored by baptism? That with audacious generosity He allows us frequent access to this Grace in the Eucharist and Reconciliation? That the Sacraments, especially the Holy Eucharist, place the very life of Christ within us? That as He is really and substantially present in the Eucharist, we are to be His presence in this world: to feed, to heal, to bring comfort, to bring the Good News, and fitted for the more real life in the world to come? That the ordained priesthood guarantees that it really is Christ who acts in the sacraments through the Holy Spirit for the Church? That the fruit of sacramental life is both personal and ecclesial: Christ's life in each of us joins us to one another forming His body, the Church?

By Liturgy, Word, and Sacrament, the great river of the faithful flows, and in that movement we all experience conversion by our contact with Divine Life and incorporation into the river of life, the Church. We do not remain where we entered. With each Mass, we are further transformed, converted, renewed so that by penance and renewal the Church flows down through the ages, enriching, transforming and bringing life. Please pray for enlightenment for our Catechumens and Candidates on their journey to the river, for we who are serving as guides and for each of our own continued conversions in the flow of the great river of the faithful.

WHO IS THE KING OF GLORY? IT IS THE LORD!

FIRST READING

Malachi 3:1-4

The lord you seek will come to the temple.

SECOND READING

Hebrews 2:14-18

Jesus became like us in order to save us.

GOSPEL READING

Luke 2:22-40

Simeon recognizes the infant Jesus as the promised Messiah.

FAMILY CONNECTION

<https://www.loyolapress.com/>

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. Discuss with your family the persons of Simeon and Anna as they meet Jesus. (Luke 2: 25-40)

Because Simeon and Anna lived lives of prayer and fasting in the Temple, they were filled with the Spirit of God. That is why they were able to identify Jesus as the Savior even though Jesus was only a baby. To these two holy people, He was recognizable as the Redeemer who had been promised. Simeon described Jesus as "a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel."

We too are called to recognize Jesus as Lord. Together as a family, discuss ways to recognize Jesus as Lord by praying and attending Mass, fasting, and serving others. As a family, decide on one specific sacrifice you can make in order to alleviate the suffering or need of someone you know.

Children's Ministries: PRESCHOOL-GRADE 5

Both Simeon and Anna were holy persons whose lives were focused on the coming of the Savior. Even though Jesus was only a newborn, they recognized him because they were filled with the Holy Spirit. We are also called to recognize Jesus. We will find him in others. Sometimes they simply need a kind word or acknowledgment; often they may need food or clothing.

Family Reflection

Let us pray that, like Simeon and Anna, we too will be filled with the Holy Spirit so that we can recognize the goodness and holiness in all the people we meet and have the courage to help where needed. Come, Holy Spirit, fill our hearts with compassion and kindle in us the fire of your love. Amen.

As we take down Christmas decorations, we want to express our sincere gratitude to those who donated to family, friends, neighbors, and others in the community. Together, we were able to brighten the holiday season for 3,266 families across central Washington.

PREPARES has truly been blessed by the donations of clothing, food, strollers, toys, gift cards, and other gifts to bless families with in their time of need. We want to thank you for your generosity and for walking alongside families with children up to the age of 5.

If you are interested in continuing to help families in your parish and community, consider volunteering with PREPARES. Call us at (509)946-4645 and find us on Facebook - <http://www.Facebook.com/PREPARESCW>
