MASS DURING COVID-19

by RACHEL PENATE

On Tuesday, when the Diocese of Phoenix made their announcement for the suspension of all public Masses and the dispensation of the Sunday obligation, my heart sank. Absolutely sank.

It's really happening, I thought. We are actually starting a Eucharistic fast... how am I going to feel without the Eucharist?

For a few weeks, this announcement had been inching closer, as our country finds new ways to collectively fight the spread of COVID-19. I mean I knew it was coming — I saw it on the horizon — but, I'm going to be honest, I didn't think it would actually come to fruition. Receiving the Eucharist and participating at Mass has always been such an important part of my faith journey, and at first glance, the suspension of public Masses really does feel like a loss. But, God's will is here, now. It is present in every single moment. And this present moment is offering a brand new opportunity to connect with Christ and each other in some pretty cool ways.

We are living through an historic experience, but we are living through this experience in a time that it's so incredibly easy to connect online. While abstaining from public Mass is an enormous loss — our ability to participate digitally (in this 21st century age of Live Streaming and video recording) is a huge gain. If you, too, find yourself in a diocese that has suspended public Masses, take a look at what we've prepared for you below, where you can find ways to still participate in the holy sacrifice. And, be at peace. We will get through this together.

Participating in the Mass Remotely: A How-To

Just as you would prepare your mind, body, and heart for Mass on any given Sunday, it is strongly encouraged that you don't let these good habits of preparation go during this time. Here are a few tips for full participation of daily or Sunday Mass via digital streaming.

Prior to Mass Starting

- 1. Pray and read the readings ahead of time. You can find the daily readings here.
- 2. Engage in discussion about the readings. Consider reading and discussing the readings with your family at home (or friends over the phone). Both Life

Teen's Summit and Lectio Live offer digital opportunities to discuss the Sunday readings before or after each Sunday Mass.

3. Choose a live stream or Mass recording to watch. Since it is important to remain connected to your parish community during this time, we recommend identifying if your parish has a Live Stream of your daily or Sunday Masses. (visit holyfamilyyakima.org or our Holy Family Facebook page).

4. Get dressed. Maybe not necessarily in your "Sunday Best," but definitely out of your pajamas.

5. Invite others to join. Plan to pray with your family, but if they will not join you, try to virtually loop in some friends via FaceTime or Zoom.

6. Bring a journal. Have a journal and pen, and be ready to write any of your thoughts, reflections, or prayers as you go through the Mass. This can be a great way to organize your prayer and remain engaged throughout the live stream of the Mass.

7. Set the scene. Do what you can to create a space set apart for prayer — of course, you'll have your computer, streaming the Mass, but consider lighting a few candles, and if you have any sacred images or statues around the house, bring them into the space you'll be praying in. If you don't have any, try to print some out, or organize your screen in a way that lets you look at sacred images, while you see the live stream of the Mass.

During Mass

Participate in all the Responses. Remember the Mass is a prayer. Even if you are not physically present at church, the prayers of the Mass are universal and translate across all time and space.

Make an Act of Spiritual Communion (See page 4). An example of one is as follows: My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

After Mass

Continue Tithing to your Church (or start if you don't already!). If you and/or your family can afford to continue (or even increase) your tithe to the church at this time, find a way to continue that tithe online. Despite being "closed," parishes' operating costs do not change at this time. Tithing helps them to keep their buildings running and their employees paid.

FAMILY CONNECTION

<https://www.loyolapress.com/>

Jesus’ promise of eternal life is a central element of our Catholic faith. Even though Easter is still two weeks away, our Gospel today invites us to acknowledge Jesus’ power over death, evidenced in the raising of Lazarus, and to anticipate Jesus’ conquering of death once and for all in his death and Resurrection. We sometimes use examples from nature to help describe this mystery of our faith. Jesus himself talked about the seed that dies when planted in the ground in order to produce new life (John 12:24). Using that image and others, we find hope and confidence in Jesus, the Resurrection and the life.

Gather your family today and read today’s Gospel in its shorter form, John 11:3-7,17,20-27,33b-45. Write Jesus’ promise from today’s Gospel (“I am the resurrection and the life.”) on a large sheet of white paper. As your family talks about what Jesus means by this promise, decorate Jesus’ words with symbols that will remind you of his promise of eternal life. Display this reminder of Jesus’ promise in a prominent place in your home and keep it there until Easter. Pray that you will always remain confident in Jesus’ promise of eternal life. Conclude by praying together the Apostles’ Creed or the Nicene Creed.

It is all about your heart...
Everything we have is a gift from God that we are to use to help others.

Laudato Si' Prayer

When we can see God reflected in all that exists, our hearts are moved to praise the Lord for all his creatures and to worship him in union with them. This sentiment finds magnificent expression in the hymn of Saint Francis of Assisi:

Praised be you, my Lord,
with all your creatures,
especially Sir Brother Sun,
who is the day and through whom you give us light.
And he is beautiful and radiant with great splendor;
and bears a likeness of you, Most High.

Praised be you, my Lord,
through Sister Moon and the stars,
in heaven you formed them clear and precious and beautiful.

Praised be you, my Lord, through Brother Wind,
and through the air, cloudy and serene,
and every kind of weather through whom you give sustenance to your creatures.

Praised be you, my Lord, through Sister Water,
who is very useful and humble and precious and chaste.

Praised be you, my Lord, through Brother Fire,
through whom you light the night,
and he is beautiful and playful and
robust and strong".

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

COMUNIÓN ESPIRITUAL

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

My Jesus,
I believe that You
are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You
into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated
from You. Amen.

ORACIÓN DE COMUNIÓN ESPIRITUAL

Creo Señor mío que éstas realmente presente
en el Santísimo
Sacramento del altar.
Te amo sobre todas las cosas y deseo
ardientemente recibirte
dentro de mi alma;
pero, no pudiendo hacerlo ahora
sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón.
Y como si te hubiese recibido, me abrazo y me
uno todo a Ti; Oh Señor, no permitas que me
separe de Ti. Amen

ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL PRAYER

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle;
be our defense against the wickedness and
snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray;
and do you, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world
for the ruin of souls.

Amen.

ORACIÓN DE SAN MIGUEL ARCÁNGEL

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la lucha. Sé nuestro amparo contra la perversidad y acechanzas del demonio. Que Dios manifieste sobre él su poder, es nuestra humilde súplica. Y tú, oh Príncipe de la Milicia Celestial, con el poder que Dios te ha conferido, arroja al infierno a Satanás, y a los demás espíritus malignos que vagan por el mundo para
la perdición de las almas.

Amén

ELIZABETH MINISTRY

is a wonderful ministry in our parish that congratulates new parents and welcomes our new 'lil' one into our faith community. Welcome bags are available in the church foyer or the parish office filled with goodies and helpful information. We are looking for new team members to help welcome new families into our community.

KNITTING & CROCHETING FOR JESUS:

Caring, Comfort, and Celebration is what Knitting & Crocheting for Jesus is all about! We knit and crochet at home and also at our Prayer Shawl gatherings. More knitters and those who crochet are needed. If you know someone who needs Care or Comfort, or has an event to Celebrate, please call Arlee Brown at 965-1347, Judy Ann Vetsch at 966-4182, or the parish office. Come knit or crochet for Jesus. We meet on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of the Month at 9:30 am.

FUNERAL PLANNING

If you have questions about how to plan a vigil and funeral liturgy, contact Deacon Jim after 4pm at 945-5432

PRAYER HOTLINE

For any prayer requests, call Barb McKinney at 945-0477 or email: rbmckinney84@gmail.com
If you'd like to become a member of the prayer hotline, please call Barb.

SEWING MINISTRY

Can you sew? The Sewing Ministry makes linens for Mass and vestments for our priests. Perhaps giving one year of your life to this ministry could be your gift to the church. We meet every Tuesday from 9:30 a.m. to noon in the Bride's Room off the church foyer.
