FORGIVENESS

FORGIVENESS MAKES GOOD SENSE

Taken from Growing in Faith

“My best friend hurt me terribly, hasn’t apologized and doesn’t act sorry. I refuse to forgive her.” “When my parents died, my brother took more than his share of their estate. I’ll never speak to him again.”

Refusing to forgive merely prolongs the hurt feelings and traps us in the past. It forces us to dwell on bad feelings and keep them alive. That feels awful. Forgiving is something we do for ourselves.

But when we forgive, the energy that sustained the anger and hurt is now available for better purposes . That feels better.

Need another reason? Jesus taught us that to receive forgiveness of our own sins we must forgive those who have hurt us. If we can’t or won’t - how can we obtain it for ourselves?

Instead, pray for those who hurt you and ask God to bless them. Not only will you find the pain start to lessen, you’ll be saying one of God’s favorite kinds of prayers. It’s exactly how Jesus prayed while on the Cross.

FOR YOU AND OUR YOUTH

Anger and Forgiveness by Dr. Bob McDonald

Prescription for overcoming the sinful anger that poisons the mind of Christ within, causing alienation and division. His practical wisdom shows that only by learning how to forgive can we hope to promote healing and understanding in our relationships and enjoy the blessings of a forgiving heart.

The Island of MalumFOR

The Opus Joyous Show weaves a wonderful story of spiritual adventure rich in Catholic symbolism and clear and effective explanations of faith, virtue, and the challenges of responding to Christ’s call to heroic battle with evil.

Making special appearances throughout the show are The Virgin Mary, Joseph, The Angel Gabriel, and Jesus appearing as the main characters travel through time collecting relics from the life of Christ in their quest to save the world from the storybook pirate villain Captain Barnacle and his shady plan for utter darkness upon the entire world! It’s an adventurous Catholic video series like you’ve never seen before!

Dear Parishioners,

We wish Jaci all the best in her retirement. We thank her for 14 years of service at Holy Family as our Office Manager.

We are happy to let you know that Mary Stratman will be taking Jaci's place in the office. Mary has been a busy volunteer at Holy Family since she moved to Yakima from Seattle three years ago. She has been a lector and recently helped set up for the outdoor Masses. Mary also co-teaches RCIA as adapted for Children (RCIC).

Mary is very excited about this opportunity and looks forward to getting to know you better. Please welcome her to Holy Family as our new Office Manager!

Greetings and Blessings

FAMILY CONNECTION

<https://www.loyolapress.com/>

Children learn to trust God's mercy and forgiveness when they experience forgiveness from those closest to them. We hope that we model God's love and forgiveness within our family life. Today's Gospel reminds us that forgiveness is measured by its quality more than its quantity.

Invite your family to consider some recent times when family members sought the forgiveness of another. Ask if there were any statements made that put conditions on our forgiveness such as "I will play this game with you if you apologize for knocking over my blocks" or "I will accept your apology after you clean up your room." Do we sometimes "keep count" or put conditions on our forgiveness of one another? This is something we may be doing without realizing it.

Read together today's Gospel, Matthew 18:21-35. Ask if we sometimes find ourselves sounding like Peter, concerning ourselves with quantity of forgiveness rather than offering forgiveness abundantly and unconditionally. Reflect upon the parable that Jesus tells. What does the servant do that makes the king so angry? He refuses to forgive his fellow servant the debt that he owes. Because we have all received God's forgiveness, God expects that we will also be forgiving toward others. Jesus' answer to Peter's question is found at the end of the parable. The number of times that we forgive one another is less important than the depth of our forgiveness. We must forgive one another from the heart.

Conclude in prayer together that God's love and forgiveness is evident in your family life. Pray together today's psalm, Psalm 103, or the Lord's Prayer.

YOUTH

Looking to the Fall

I hope that you are all having a blessed summer, and finding ways to beat the heat! I wanted to take a moment here to discuss the Fall, and the current plan of attack for Middle and High School Youth Ministry.

Due to the uncertainty surrounding school reopening, we have made the decision to reopen upper division religious education fully online. I believe it is possible to deliver our content for the year online in a meaningful way, and I do not wish to put any of our religious education students or their families at risk. As with all things related to COVID-19, this will be subject to change as the year progresses, and we will certainly look to reopen in person when it is safe to do so.

As a fully online program, Youth Ministry will have a different structure than last year. This is the tentative slate of options that we will be offering:

Middle School:
Wednesday night check-in
Gender/grade small groups

High School:
Sunday afternoon check-in
Bible Study
Men's and Women's small groups

All dates and times are currently TBD. I will post a detailed description of each option on the Holy Family Parish website on the Youth Ministry and Middle School ministry pages.

Registration is currently open! Please check the parish website for registration forms and details

God Bless,
Hannah

WE NEED YOUR HELP

This year, we are facing an increased need for adult volunteers to help facilitate our religious education programs. Online programming requires a greater degree of adult supervision and guidance to maintain a safe environment for all participants. Please consider volunteering your time and your experience to help our teens navigate these unprecedented times. There are many ways that parents can help, and we are currently exploring the possibilities. Please contact Hannah if you are willing to volunteer! Volunteers must be 19 years of age or older, and active Catholics.

LOGO DESIGN

We are actively looking for a new logo for Holy Family Youth Ministry! Submissions will be accepted by e-mail from now until October 1! The winning submission will receive a prize and will have their logo featured on mailouts and t-shirts this year! Anyone between the ages of 12 and 18 is eligible to submit a logo. To be considered, logos must be appropriate, feature the words "Holy Family Youth Ministry" and use up to (but not more than) three colors. Happy crafting!

ELIZABETH MINISTRY

is a wonderful ministry in our parish that congratulates new parents and welcomes our new 'lil' one into our faith community. Welcome bags are available in the church foyer or the parish office filled with goodies and helpful information. We are looking for new team members to help welcome new families into our community.

Elizabeth Ministry

Bereavement offers support for women who have suffered the loss of a baby to miscarriage. In this time of grief and questions, please call Christine Levitan at 901-4995 to receive helpful information and resources, and, if you wish, the opportunity to talk with someone who has been through this difficult experience.
