YEAR OF GRACE ON THE

Real Presence

CORPUS CHRISTI 2021-2022

“and they recognized Him...” He is Real

THE REAL PRESENCE OF JESUS IN THE EUCHARIST

ALL SOULS REMEMBRANCE

Dear Parish family,

During the month of November, we are invited by Mother Church to pray for our faithful departed brothers and sisters. As disciples and pilgrims on earth we are united with those who have gone before us, marked with the sign of faith, into the “Communion of Saints”. Therefore, we are all the Mystical Body of Jesus Christ; the Church. We are called to pray; the departed for us and we for them. I invite you to honor your loved one’s memory by writing their names on the envelope you will find in the bins at the entrances of our church. Bring the envelope to the church and place it in the collection basket. Beginning in November, our Holy Family community will join in prayer for all the departed family, friends and parishioners at each Mass during the month.

The Day of the Dead (All Souls Day, Día de los Muertos in Spanish) is a holiday celebrated with a unique emphasis in Mexico and by people of Mexican heritage (and others) living in the United States and Canada. The holiday focuses on gatherings of family and friends to pray for and remember friends and relatives who have died. The celebration occurs on the 1st and 2nd of November, in connection with the Catholic holy days of All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day which take place on those days. Traditions include building private altars honoring the deceased, using sugar skulls, marigolds, and the favorite foods and beverages of the departed, and visiting graves with these as gifts.

In the main foyer of the church you will notice “The altar of remembrance”, which will be up all of November honoring our deceased brothers and sisters. These altars usually have the Christian cross, statues or pictures of the Blessed Virgin Mary, pictures of deceased relatives and other persons, and scores of candles. Traditionally families spend some time around the altar praying and telling anecdotes about the deceased. In some locations, celebrants wear shells on their clothing so when they dance the dead will wake up because of the noise. Some will dress up as the deceased. I would like to invite all of you to bring pictures of the deceased members of your family and friends so we can give them especial honor by placing them on “The altar of remembrance” and making especial prayers for them.

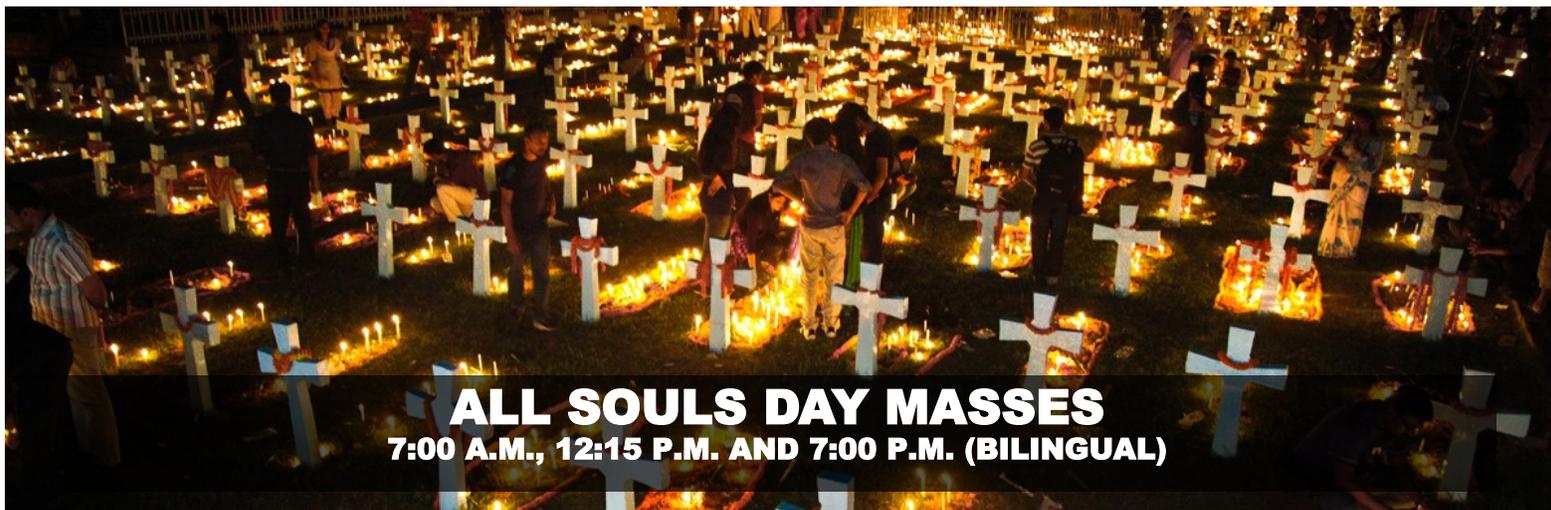

Father Mike, Father Dan and I continue to pray for each one of you and your families. Please pray for us.

Greetings and Blessings,

Rev. César Vega-Mendoza

Pastor

“Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.” Amen.

7:00 A.M., 12:15 P.M. AND 7:00 P.M. (BILINGUAL)

THE LORD HAS DONE GREAT THINGS FOR US.

FIRST READING

Deuteronomy 6:2-6

Moses teaches the people to love and worship God alone.

SECOND READING

Hebrews 7:23-28

Jesus intercedes for us as our eternal high priest.

GOSPEL READING

Mark 12:28b-34

Jesus is questioned by a scribe about the greatest commandment.

FAMILY CONNECTION

<https://www.loyolapress.com/>

As Christians, our moral behavior is guided by the two-part commandment taught by Jesus in today's Gospel: love God and love your neighbor as yourself. Many of us learned to use this framework as an examination of conscience. By examining our lives through the lens of these commandments, we have learned that the challenge of these commandments is not in our desire to follow them but in our capacity to consistently honor these commandments in our daily lives.

For one week, identify and collect news reports of how Christians show their love for God by loving and serving their neighbor. Clip these news items and share what you have heard when you gather as a family. Read together today's Gospel, Mark 12:28b-34. Talk about ways in which your family might contribute to the examples of Christian service you found. Choose one of these actions to do together as a family. Conclude in prayer together asking God to help us show love to our family members and friends. Pray together the Act of Love.

When the Saints Go Marching

by ANDREW BRUEGGEN | <https://lifeteen.com/blog/detox-never-thought-needed/>

God has a sense of humor. If you do not believe me, look at the list of Patron Saints and their stories. For instance, St. Denis, Patron Saint of Headaches, had his head cut clean off and walked a mile preaching with it in his hands. Let's be honest; if you can think about it, there is probably a patron saint for it. Do you like to frequent your local coffeehouse? St. Drogo. Are you afraid of Caterpillars? St. Magnus. Often find yourself jumping into and exploring caves? St. Benedict. Some saints were horrible people before their conversion. I'm looking at you, St. Olaf (not to be confused with the Snowman from Frozen). Other saints, like St. Isadore the Farmer, led completely normal lives just doing their thing by following God's will.

In reading the lives of the more well-known saints, one can have the opposite attitude of St. Ignatius of Loyola and say, "There is no way I can do what they did!" or "I am not Holy enough" and then simply give up. (by the way, St Ignatius read the lives of the saints and went, "Psh I can do that"...and he did). All Saints Day is a day for us to celebrate the lives of not just the well-known saints, not just even those with the St. in front of their name, but it is a celebration of every single person in heaven. Your spiritual BFFs. This means on All Saints Day, we celebrate the feast day of our own friends and family who are in heaven. These ordinary people with who you share a bloodline with have a feast day in the Church. St. Jose Maria Esquiva once said, "A Saint is a sinner that keeps trying." The stories of the lives of the saints are not meant to discourage us from a life of faith, but instead give us the confidence we need to see how God's mercy and forgiveness works in an unlimited amount of ways.

Would it be sweet to bilocate like Padre Pio...yes. Would it be great to ace your tests without studying like St. Joseph of Cupertino...for sure! But remember, there is so much more to each of these saints than what is written about them in a paragraph or two when you type them into google. These are people that lived full lives. They experienced the ups and downs of life, probably not that much different from yourself. They did not have that euphoric camp high experience constantly throughout their lives. St. Teresa of Avila, who experienced every emotion when it came to her faith and struggled mightily in prayer, once told Jesus after experiencing yet another trial, "If this is how you treat your friends, then no wonder you have so few."

So what ties them all together? What connects these seemingly unique sets of personalities spread out across time? It is the one thing that connects past, present, and future. It is the very thing we do to commemorate this feast day. We partake in a meal in which God's life is given to us, together in heaven and on earth. If you were to ask any of the saints how they were able to do what they did, they would chuckle and ask don't you understand? It is quite simple. They would follow the example of what Mary, Queen of the Saints, would do and point to Jesus. Now, go celebrate our good friend St. Drogo and have a good cup of joe, and with that added caffeine boost, continue your own saint story.
