IN EVERY AGE, O LORD, YOU HAVE BEEN OUR REFUGE.

First Reading

Wisdom 9:13-18b

Knowledge alone has limits. We also need wisdom to understand the ways of God.

Second Reading

Philemon 9-10, 12-17

Paul encourages one of his converts to consider his former slave a brother in Christ Jesus.

Gospel Reading

Luke 14:25-33

Jesus teaches about the demands of discipleship.

FAMILY CONNECTION

<https://www.loyolapress.com/>

In chapter 14 of Luke's Gospel, Jesus is speaking to people gathered at the table about the difficulties of following him. This group of people is suspicious about Jesus, looking to catch him doing something wrong. Jesus speaks to them in parables, emphasizing that although there is a right way to be a disciple and enter into the kingdom of his Father, it is a difficult path to follow. Many, even some of the guests at the table, reject the invitation. So Jesus turns to the crowds and speaks to them of discipleship. Jesus explains that, when it comes to making a choice for the Kingdom of God, nothing can get in the way. When Jesus describes "hating" one's father and mother, he is not talking about feelings. Rather, he is emphasizing very strongly that choosing to be a disciple means that everything else—family, money, your own life—must come second. In Matthew's version of this story (Matthew 10:37), Jesus refers not to "hating" father or mother, but to loving them more than Jesus. Jesus makes it very clear that being a disciple is not easy. It means to bear one's own cross. These difficult sayings of Jesus are followed by two brief parables (a person constructing a tower and a king marching into battle) that make an obvious point—don't start what you cannot finish. Discipleship is difficult and is something we can commit to only if we are prepared to put the Kingdom of God before everything else.

September 8, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Soon our diocese will take up the Diocesan Collection for Beit Mery Hermitage / Retirement Fund for Religious. This collection supports the retirement needs for those who have served so faithfully and continue to pray for us.

Fifty percent of the collection will be used by the diocese to support the ministry and prayer of Sr. Janet Strong, our diocesan hermit. Sr. Janet Strong has been a professed diocesan hermit for more than 35 years. She has a ministry of prayer. The diocese provides housing and helps with medical expenses. The other 50 percent of the collection will go to the National Retired Fund for Religious.

In his letter to the Galatians, St. Paul urges us to remain steadfast in helping others: “Let us not grow tired of doing good, for in due time we shall reap our harvest, if we do not give up” (Gal 6:9). During these unprecedented times, many are hurting and need our assistance, including elderly religious.

Today, hundreds of religious communities do not have enough retirement savings and struggle to provide for a growing number of elder members. Covid-19 has only increased the challenge to provide adequate care. Your gift to the Diocesan Collection for Beit Mery Hermitage / Retirement Fund for Religious provides vital funding for medications, nursing care, and more.

In these difficult days, you may feel as though your generosity has been exhausted. I ask just two things. First, please join me in praying for God’s protection for all our elderly religious. Second, please support the Diocesan Collection for Beit Mery Hermitage / Retirement Fund for Religious Retirement Fund as you are able—and know that religious men and women across the country hold you and your loved ones in grateful prayer.

With every best wish and blessings,

Most Reverend Joseph J Tyson
Bishop of Yakima

The Book of the Prophet Isaiah
by Lavinia Spirito with Ree Kearns

In the 8th century BC Isaiah the prophet foresaw the coming of the Messiah as Suffering Servant and King. Through the Holy Spirit he saw the Gospel-The Good News-of Jesus Christ, leading to his writings being dubbed "The Fifth Gospel". The failings of the Chosen People brought on God's judgement in the form of defeat and deportation. Yet all along the way the Father is comforting and upholding them-and us-and pointing to the hope of glory of the coming restoration in the messianic age and in the world to come. "Thus says the Lord who created you and formed you: Do not fear for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name: you are mine." Isaiah 43:1
