FAMILY CONNECTION

<https://www.loyolapress.com/>

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus teach about faith and service to God. The context is a continuing dialogue between Jesus and his followers about what it means to be a disciple of Jesus. Jesus has just finished an instruction on sin and forgiveness. There are two related teachings that Jesus offers to his disciples when they cry out for an increase in faith. The first is the familiar reminder that faith, even just a little, will enable the followers of Jesus to do wondrous things. But this uplifting and inspiring teaching is quickly followed by the second teaching, a caution about knowing one's place in God's plans. The disciples of Jesus are to understand themselves as servants to God and his plans. Even when God works wonders through us, with our mustard seed-sized faith, we must not seek praise. Our participation in God's plans is God's grace to us—nothing more, nothing less. When we are graced enough to cooperate with God, the work we do is nothing more than our obligation to God as faithful stewards. And yet, our faith enables us to believe that what we have offered in service to God, as his servants, can be made to produce a hundredfold.

INFORMATIONAL MEETING FOR OUR PARISH BIBLE STUDY ON THE PROPHET
ISAIAH BEGINS THIS THURSDAY AT 10:30

The Book of the Prophet Isaiah

by Lavinia Spirito with Ree Kearns

In the 8th century BC Isaiah the prophet foresaw the coming of the Messiah as Suffering Servant and King. Through the Holy Spirit he saw the Gospel-The Good News-of Jesus Christ, leading to his writings being dubbed "The Fifth Gospel". The failings of the Chosen People brought on God's judgement in the form of defeat and deportation. Yet all along the way the Father is comforting and upholding them-and us-and pointing to the hope of glory of the coming restoration in the messianic age and in the world to come. "Thus says the Lord who created you and formed you: Do not fear for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name: you are mine." Isaiah 43:1
