FAMILY CONNECTION

<https://www.loyolapress.com/>

In an ideal household, family members know the rules and follow them consistently. Even the most conscientious among us, however, sometimes needs to be reminded of the rules and their importance. How we respond to such correction reveals our true character. In today's Gospel Jesus exposes the religious leaders for their failure to heed God's messengers. It is an opportunity for us to consider how we respond to those who are God's messengers today, calling us to correct our ways and return to the way of the Lord.

As you gather as a family, talk about some of the most important rules of your household. Consider how consistently family members follow these rules. How are family members reminded when rules are not being followed? How do they respond? In today's Gospel Jesus corrects the religious leaders through a parable telling them that they have not heeded God's messengers. Read Matthew 21:33-43. What are some of God's rules that we must follow? How do we respond to God's messengers today? Pray together as a family that you will heed God's messengers and follow God's ways. Pray together the Act of Contrition for the times when your family has not heeded God's word.

Past Retreatants Comments:

"I felt so warmly welcomed at the door right from the start on Friday afternoon when I arrived! That feeling grew stronger everyday as the retreat experience developed with deeper awareness of our bond as Christ's own Body here on this earth." Paula Hull, Holy Family, Yakima (2016)

"We have tried many Catholic special movements for 40 years. All were very good. However, the Evangelization weekend was the first to put all these into one. Sharing was great, small group sessions were very fruitful, fantastic music, the evening prayer service was a crown jewel, and the fruit of the weekend is brought into the parish. Absolutely wonderful!" Tom and Jean Richtsmeier, Wenatchee (2016)

"So much love. Powerful weekend. I had tried almost everything to fill a void in my life except God. He filled that void without doubt. I now have life!" Jerry St. Martin, Holy Family (2018)

"Life changing experience. Presentations based on sharing and spreading the Good News of Jesus Christ. The mood of the Retreat Group was Christ oriented. Became more dedicated to join the Catholic Church." Glen Wright, Holy Family, Yakima (2018)

"The Holy Spirit encouraged me to be more faithful, to appreciate God more and to share my faith. The music was awesome, uplifting and inspiring. I am anxious to attend the 2022 retreat!" Mary Munez, St Joseph, Yakima (2019)

EVANGELIZATION RETREAT

"Truly a weekend that will change your life!"

October 20-22, 2023

EVANGELIZATION

Vision

The Christian Journey begins as an encounter with the Living God. We respond to this experience by freely opening our lives to a relationship with the indwelling presence of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. This relationship heals us and moves us in community to spiritual growth and service within our churches and the larger community.

EVANGELIZATION RETREAT

Mission

The Evangelization Retreat provides the people of God with an opportunity within the parish setting for an intense and ongoing encounter with their God.

Goals

Retreat:

- 1) Retreatants praise and worship in song, share scripture reading, and hear testimonies by fellow parishioners of their journey of faith.
- 2) Retreatants share in small groups that draw out and validate each other's experience of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
- 3) Retreatants participate in the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist, and other prayer experiences.

Community Groups

Retreatants come together in small weekly community groups and monthly catechesis to continue to nurture personal growth in faith and community outreach after the retreat.

About the Retreat

The retreat is planned, organized and conducted by lay people under the guidance and authority of the pastor. We spend 6 - 8 weeks preparing for the retreat. During the last six weeks we gather every Friday evening for Prayer and Praise, so that we are constantly aware of our need for the Holy Spirit and whose work we do. The retreat itself begins on Friday evening and concludes on Sunday afternoon with retreatants going home at night and returning early each morning. The retreat format closely follows a book by Fr. Alfonso Navarro, Evangelization: God's Love for Man.

The Evangelization Retreat is about conversion:

It is about evangelizing the church. It is not so much a program as it is a grace. It focuses upon the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Reconciliation, Confirmation, and Eucharist, whereby we become converted. Whereby, we become witnesses. Whereby, we recognize our need for community and our call to mission. It is a matter of the heart, not the head.

Common Questions and Answers about the Retreat

Is there a cost associated with this retreat?

There will be a Free-will offering taken up during the retreat to cover the cost of food and other expenses. We do not want cost to be a barrier for attending the retreat. If a suggested donation would be helpful, $60.00 will be most appropriate. In addition to the suggested donation, retreat shirts will be sold during the weekend for retreatants and team members. Prices of shirts and sizes are included on the registration form. Evangelization shirts are worn on Sunday of the retreat and any time thereafter.

What if I can't attend the full retreat?

There is a portion of this retreat that will take place in small groups. It does not work well for people to attend only parts of the retreat. The retreat moves from one theme to the next and builds throughout the weekend. If you are unable to attend the full retreat, we recommend that you wait until the next retreat is offered.

Is child care provided?

Due to lack of suitable space, we are unable to provide good child care for the weekend retreat.

What about Mass during the retreat?

The retreatants and those conducting the retreat participate in the regular Sunday Liturgy with the rest of the parish. Retreatants are also encouraged to attend Mass on Saturday morning before the retreat begins.

What should I do if I am interested in attending?

*Complete the registration form and return it to the address noted on the form. If you have questions, you can call: Bill Kirby at 509-741-4048 or Lillian Hammett at 509-972-1454.

"This Is My Body"

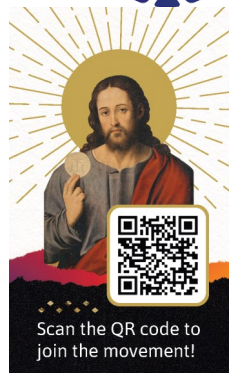

THE SHOCKING TRUTH

Jesus said, "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life." This teaching was so shocking that many of his followers left at that moment! Jesus did not call them back to clarify, because he knew they understood correctly. He was actually telling them to eat his flesh and drink his blood.

As Catholics, we believe Jesus' words literally, not symbolically. The substance of the bread and wine transform into the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ at every Mass. We call this miracle the Eucharist.

SACRAMENTS

The saving words and deeds of Jesus Christ are the foundation of what he would communicate in the Sacraments through the ministers of the Church. Guided by the Holy Spirit, the Church recognizes the existence of Seven Sacraments instituted by the Lord. Through the Sacraments, God shares his holiness with us so that we, in turn, can make the world holier. usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/sacraments-and-sacramentals

Chapter 27: Vocations

Is there an opportunity for a young person to experience heroic living and heroic love in your parish community to foster discernment of religious or missionary vocations? For Father Mark-Mary, this opportunity played a key role in his discovery of his vocation to the priesthood.
