Annual Catholic Appeal Prayer:

God the Father of all gifts, we praise you, the source of all we are. Teach us to acknowledge the many good things your infinite love has given us. Help us respond with generous gratitude through our support of the Catholic Church across Central Washington.

Open our hearts to follow your call. Make us messengers of the Gospel in love and service, so that all may come to know you and become your disciples.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LORD IS OUR STRENGTH

First Reading

Malachi 1:14b-2:2b,8-10

Through the prophet Malachi, God judges the priests of Israel and calls them to be more faithful to the covenant.

Second Reading

1 Thessalonians 2:7b-9,13

Paul gives thanks to God for the way in which the Thessalonians received the word of God.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 23:1-12

Jesus warns against following the example of the scribes and the Pharisees and teaches that those who would be great must be servants.

FAMILY CONNECTION

<https://www.loyolapress.com/>

“Do as I say, not as I do.” How many of us have been tempted to say this to our children? In today’s Gospel we hear a resounding reply from Jesus, “Practice what you preach.” Those who know us best, our family and especially our children, can identify the inconsistencies between what we want to teach and the example that we give. The challenge for all of us, especially for those of us who are parents, is to model with consistency the faith and the Christian way of life we wish to teach our children.

As you gather as a family, talk about what it means to practice what you preach. Identify some examples of people you know who practice what they preach. What do you observe about these people? What do you admire about them?

In today’s Gospel, we hear Jesus talk about the importance of acting in ways that are consistent with our faith. Read together today’s Gospel, Matthew 23:1-12. Talk together about ways in which your family might better practice the faith that you profess. Choose one action to take that will show your faith in action. Pray together that your family’s faith will be shown consistently in your actions. Pray the Prayer for Vocations.

Our project for this year

Is to bring an awareness of libraries and what the need are for Catholic Schools and/or other needs in the community.

This is Pledge Weekend for the Diocesan Annual Catholic Appeal. Our Parish goal, as always, is 100% participation. Can you imagine the additional good works that can be accomplished with just a 10% increase in donors? To achieve this goal, each of us is asked to prayerfully open our hearts to the needs of our Diocese and make a gift as our individual circumstances allow. If you want to donate online, please visit www.yakimadiocese.org or scan the QR code on the pledge card.

When you give to the Annual Catholic Appeal, you are:

- Supporting Vocations for Priests and Deacons:
- Supporting Catechists, Lay Formation, and Evangelization:
- Supporting Ministries to Families, Youth, and Young Adults:
- Supporting Catholic Schools:
- Supporting Parish Needs:
- Providing Local Rebate Once we have surpassed our Parish Goal.

Your contributions have a positive and lasting impact on the lives of many individuals and the growth of our parish and diocese. Thank you for your dedication, generosity, and commitment to these important ministries. Your support is an essential part of strengthening the Church and its mission.

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY

SACRAMENTS

The saving words and deeds of Jesus Christ are the foundation of what he would communicate in the Sacraments through the ministers of the Church. Guided by the Holy Spirit, the Church recognizes the existence of Seven Sacraments instituted by the Lord. Through the Sacraments, God shares his holiness with us so that we, in turn, can make the world holier. usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/sacraments-and-sacramentals

SACRAMENTS OF INITIATION

BAPTISMS

Holy Baptism is the basis of the whole Christian life, the gateway to life in the Spirit (vitae spiritualis ianua), and the door which gives access to the other sacraments. Through Baptism we are freed from sin and reborn as sons of God; we become members of Christ, are incorporated into the church and made sharers in her mission;
