BLESSED ARE THEY WHO HAVE KEPT THE WORD WITH A GENEROUS HEART

First Reading

Genesis 18:1-10a

Abraham entertains three strangers and is promised a son.

Second Reading

Colossians 1:24-28

The mystery hidden from ages past has now been revealed in Christ.

Gospel Reading

Luke 10:38-42

Jesus visits the house of Martha and Mary.

FAMILY CONNECTION

www.loyolapress.com

In our families and homes, we have boundaries. Some are geographical; we may have our own room or part of a room that we want others to stay out of. Parents may have home offices that are off-limits to children. Some boundaries are behavioral; children may speak one way to their friends, but they are not allowed to speak the same way to their parents or other adults. A Curfew is another type of boundary, whose purpose is to protect children's safety.

Talk about examples of boundaries in your family. For the most part, these boundaries are good. Talk about how sometimes we set up boundaries for the wrong reasons. For example, if we are angry with a sibling, we may draw a line and tell him or her to stay on his or her side. Explain that when we use boundaries to exclude others, we are being hurtful. Point out how in Jesus' time, some boundaries were used to unfairly exclude people. One example was from last week's Gospel: Samaritans. This Sunday's Gospel has another example: women. Talk about how the role of women has changed in your lifetime. Explain that in this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus breaks down a barrier that kept women from being disciples.

Read aloud Luke 10:38-42. Talk about how Martha is conditioned by the existing boundaries of her society, but how her sister, Mary, breaks through that boundary and becomes a disciple of Jesus. Talk about how you can work as a family to break down boundaries that separate people. Point out that when we pray the Lord's Prayer, we call God "Our Father," meaning that we are all his children; no boundaries should separate us. Conclude this time together by praying the Lord's Prayer.

Please be generous in this week's special collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. In the United States, over 11% of the population lives in poverty. Through this collection, you support programs that address the root causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for those struggling across the country. In addition, 25% of the funds we collect remain in our diocese to fund local antipoverty projects. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and those working on the margins. Diocesan Annual Catholic Appeal Help Us Cross the Finish Line!

We're almost there, thanks to your generosity, we've raised $117,201 in pledges toward our parish goal of $123,483, with $99,629 already paid. That leaves us $23,854 short of our target.

But this isn't just about dollars, it's about participation. Our goal is 100% involvement, yet only 217 of our 1,271 parishioners have pledged so far. That means over 1,000 of you still have a chance to join in!

Every gift, big or small, moves us closer. Let's come together as a community and reach the goal—in spirit and in support.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics have different images of the Blessed mother?

In the well-known Marian apparitions approved by the Church—Guadalupe, Lourdes, Fatima, and Kibeho—the Blessed Virgin Mary's appearance seems to adapt to the local culture of those to whom she appears, while her central message remains consistent: a call to prayer, repentance and renewed devotion to the Faith.

For example, the miraculous image of Our Lady of Guadalupe features symbolic elements that the Aztec people would have understood, communicating the Gospel message in a way that resonated within their cultural context. This adaptation of Mary's appearance underscores her closeness to the communities she visits, reflecting the profound truth of her spiritual motherhood of all Christians.
