PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of God of Saint Joseph Roman Catholic community, Empowered by the Holy Spirit, must manifest to the city of Kingston, New York, and to the world, a clear vision of God's plan for His kingdom as we strive to grow in relationship with Jesus Christ, one another, and the Universal Church.

We endeavor to be a welcoming parish, and are dedicated to creating an environment of faith through Sacred Scripture, Sacred Tradition, Sacred Liturgy and by the reception of the Holy Sacraments, study, stewardship, and action, so that in union with our Triune Godhead, we may build up the Kingdom of God. Sharing these ministries, as the Mystical Body of Christ, we as the People of God at St. Joseph Parish challenge ourselves to witness to the truth of His Church in Word and Deed to one and all.

FR. KEVIN'S REFLECTION
31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

I've heard stories of priests telling people they are going to hell. It's always fun to place oneself on a pedestal. The problem is that judgment is reserved to God alone and while the Church draws Her moral theology from the wisdom of the ages, and the saints, to say that anyone is going to hell is to violate the First Commandment. How great indeed were the heavy burdens and the insupportable demands of the law—attributed to the scribes and the Pharisees—about which Christ spoke and which God most assuredly gave them on account of the sin of the golden calf. The scribes and Pharisees taught [this law], persuading the people to live according to the commands of the law and not to go over to the easy and joyful grace of Christ. Indeed, the Lord spoke above about these very burdensome commands, exhorting the Jews, "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." And in the Acts of the Apostles, Peter says, "And you, why do you tempt God and wish to impose a yoke on the necks of the disciples which neither we nor our fathers were able to bear?" For there were indeed those who, commending the burdens of the law to their listeners for certain fabled reasons, could not push these things away from themselves, as if chains were binding on their shoulders above their hearts, as if they were constricted by the chains of reason. For the Pharisees and scribes did not fulfill these duties in any moderation. That is to say, they did not do so with full strength nor even with a moderate effort, such as with a finger. Consequently, however, priests who now order justice among their people but who themselves do not serve even moderately are surely not just in doing so, although they may appear to be just teachers. Such are they who impose heavy burdens on those coming to repentance, they who preach but do not practice; and so, while the punishment of sin is placed on those present, the punishment of future sin is despised. [Saint Thomas Aquinas, 43rd Homily on Matthew]

ALTAR LINEN MINISTRY

Our Linens/Altar Care Ministry offers parishioners a special, sacred way to serve the Church. Volunteers launder and iron altar linens and albs used during Mass and return the linens to the parish. Additional help may be needed during Christmas and Holy Week. Please consider joining this very important ministry! If you or someone you know is interested, please call the parish office at 481-4560 today.

INSPIRED SONGS OF HEALING, HOPE AND REMEMBRANCE...

In the tradition of our faith, during the month of November, we honor and remember those who have died. Our parish music ministry and guest singers will provide an hour of inspired song to offer a moment of comfort, healing and hope. You are invited to: Inspired Songs of Healing, Hope and Remembrance

St. Joseph's Parish

Sunday, November 12th at 2:30 pm

The names of our beloved dead, listed above, will be read during this service and a book of remembrance will be available for you to write your family and friends who have died. A heartfelt selection of songs and reflections will be presented by our Music Ministry including guest choristers from the area. All are welcomed.

THIS WEEK

ETERNAL REST™

THE ART OF DYING WELL

Where did death come from? What does death mean for the human person? Is it simply just part of life, or is it something else? In this first session, we discuss the story of death and God's response to it: defeating death by dying and rising from the dead. View all episodes here: <https://watch.formed.org/eternal-rest>

You are cordially invited to join us to explore and discuss each week's scripture readings in preparation for Sunday Mass.

Come Join us each Saturday morning 10:30 - 11:30am in the Safford Home at 60 Elizabeth St. Kingston, NY.

OR you could join us remotely at:

(916) 233-0790 PIN 436479

For more info, call Ralph Mitchell at (845) 594-9487 or Beth Safford at (845) 668-0448.

Our goal: We learn something, we enjoy it, readings become more familiar at Mass!

SEVEN SISTERS APOSTOLATE

The mission of the Seven Sisters Apostolate is a call to strengthen the Church by ensuring that a Holy Hour is prayed each day of the week for the sole intention of a specific priest - a "holy wasting" (Mt. 26:10) - or lavishing of prayer for his deeper conformity to Christ. Here is how it's structured: Seven Women: at least seven (7) women are needed to respond to the mission of the Apostolate; One Priest: our Parish pastor, Father Kevin Malick will be the recipient of the prayers; One Hour, One Day: each member will commit to a Holy Hour on a distinct day of the week thus covering a complete week. The Seven Sister may pray at any time on her day; Holy Eucharist: ideally, the Holy Hour is prayed in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament -either in an Adoration Chapel or in front of a Tabernacle; One Year: the generous commitment of one hour per week of prayer is asked for a period of one (1) year. After the pastor has a committed group, subsequent groups may be formed for others such as the parochial vicar, etc. If you feel called to this Apostolate, please give Dorothy McHugh a call at: (845) 338-2315 or text: (845) 242-0114.

Please pray for George Habernig, Thomas E. Comerford, Crystal Goodman, Rich Metcalf and for all parishioners homebound, in healthcare facilities or seriously ill.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF ALL WHO HAVE RECENTLY DIED

Ann Howard, Robert Milne,
James Meyer and Judith Tosi
