PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of God of Saint Joseph Roman Catholic community, Empowered by the Holy Spirit, must manifest to the city of Kingston, New York, and to the world, a clear vision of God's plan for His kingdom as we strive to grow in relationship with Jesus Christ, one another, and the Universal Church.

We endeavor to be a welcoming parish, and are dedicated to creating an environment of faith through Sacred Scripture, Sacred Tradition, Sacred Liturgy and by the reception of the Holy Sacraments, study, stewardship, and action, so that in union with our Triune Godhead, we may build up the Kingdom of God. Sharing these ministries, as the Mystical Body of Christ, we as the People of God at St. Joseph Parish challenge ourselves to witness to the truth of His Church in Word and Deed to one and all.

“They said, “Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him?” (Mark 6:3) I was born on July 7, 1979. This weekend I turn 45 years old. From one perspective it the half-way point in my forties to age 50 and my 40th birthday party seemed like it was last week. My hair is grayer (and thinner) as my hairline continues to recede. My back hurts. My knees hurt. Every time I begin a new exercise routine, it takes longer to get back into shape. Stress takes more of a toll then it once did. Poor, poor Kevin. And then I read the above selection from Mark 6. Obviously, they were talking about the wisdom of Jesus, but what kind of wisdom has been given to me, looking back at my life thus far? I am grateful to have 45 years (even if my facial expression doesn’t always show it). I know, most importantly, that I am loved by God and others. To be loved is to share in the glory of the second Person of the Trinity. To be loved is to experience the glory of our humanity, made in the image and likeness of God. It is only in being loved that we learn to love and in the words of mathematician John Nash: “The greatest equation in life is love.” And as Saint Paul says in 1 Corinthians 13: “Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.” Even amid our fallen nature and proclivity to commit sin, we can still be loved and love. This means that we can “rejoice in the truth.” So many lies fill our world, but the truth of God’s plan of redemption for humanity fills my heart, even when I fail to love Him. Nine months before I was born, my soul was created to live in His love. What a beautiful truth; what a gift!

The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free.

Luke 4:18

MARCH FOR LIFE NEW YORK

Before I formed you in the womb I knew you
Jeremiah 1:5

St. Joseph's Parish was well represented at the

In Albany on June 24, 2024.
The event was inspiring and informative.
