PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of God of Saint Joseph Roman Catholic community, Empowered by the Holy Spirit, must manifest to the city of Kingston, New York, and to the world, a clear vision of God's plan for His kingdom as we strive to grow in relationship with Jesus Christ, one another, and the Universal Church.

We endeavor to be a welcoming parish, and are dedicated to creating an environment of faith through Sacred Scripture, Sacred Tradition, Sacred Liturgy and by the reception of the Holy Sacraments, study, stewardship, and action, so that in union with our Triune Godhead, we may build up the Kingdom of God. Sharing these ministries, as the Mystical Body of Christ, we as the People of God at St. Joseph Parish challenge ourselves to witness to the truth of His Church in Word and Deed to one and all.

FOURTH SUNDAY of EASTER

©JPPC

We have some major changes in the readings starting this week, Good Shepherd Sunday. The reading from Acts is not Peter and the Church in Jerusalem, but is now about Paul and the missionary journey to the Gentiles. The reading from John's Gospel goes back to Chapter 10, when Jesus was still alive and preaching.

The reading from Acts tells of Paul and Barnabas's first missionary journey in Antioch. Paul had spoken the previous Sabbath about Jesus, and had also stated that Jesus was the Messiah they had been waiting for. Many of them wanted to hear more about Jesus. That is what we hear about today. Many of them were Gentiles or converts to Judaism. Paul and Barnabas did not abandon them when they left, but appointed ministers and teachers to keep instructing them and caring for them.

The reading from Revelation reinforces what Paul says in Antioch, that the ones who "survived the time of great distress", their life on earth, their suffering for the name of Jesus, will come from every nation, race, people and tongue, not just the Jews, still God's Chosen People. Those who will be saved are those who believed in Jesus and were willing to suffer for their belief.

The Gospel, of course, is from the parable of the Good Shepherd. Jesus says He will not lose anyone who comes to Him sincerely. The Pharisees recognize that Jesus is talking about them, and their abandonment of their people. Jesus says He will take care of those whom His Father gave Him.

Jesus has called us to be with Him. Once we accept His call, receive the sacraments, we are His. He will not leave us, forget us, or stop loving us. We may walk away from Him, but He will never leave us. Jesus will always come to seek us out, to let us return to His love and mercy. We have the shepherds of our parish, the priests anointed by God to care for us. We have the sacrament of Reconciliation, the opportunity to tell God we're sorry. We have the Mass and Eucharist, to refresh and strengthen our soul and renew our union with God. Let us use the opportunities we have to become and stay part of the flock of Christ.

PRAYER FOR MOTHERS

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the gift of motherhood. Today, we celebrate the loving sacrifice of mothers, both biological and spiritual, who nurture and guide us in Your ways. Bless them with joy, strength, and love to continue their selfless devotion. May they feel deeply appreciated and honored not just today, but every day. Amen.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O Holy Spirit, Spirit of wisdom and divine Love, impart your knowledge, understanding and counsel to youth so that they may find the vocation wherein they can best serve God. Give them courage and strength to follow God's holy will. Guide their uncertain steps, strengthen their resolution, shield their chastity, fashion their minds, conquer their hearts, and lead them to the vineyards where they will labor in God's holy service. Amen EWTN

May 11 is CALLED BY NAME SUNDAY

Cardinal Dolan is asking us to identify faithful young men (ages 15-30) who exhibit qualities of leadership and service, and who may be open to the priesthood.

To submit names, please visit www.nypriest.com/calledbyname.

Men you submit will receive a letter of encouragement from Cardinal Dolan, invitations to discernment events, and support from our Vocation Team. Thank you for your participation in this important campaign!
