A Word from Father

Dear Friends:

This past Friday evening, Sacred Heart Church proudly hosted the graduation ceremony for Cataldo Catholic School. The eighth graders who were to receive their diplomas came to church that evening dressed to the nines...boys with pressed slacks, ironed shirts, and colorful ties...girls with lovely dresses that accented their youthful personalities. They were, of course, all smiles and the camaraderie among this particular class of graduates was palpable as they greeted one another and posed for pictures together.

It was a pleasure...even more, a joy...to behold the scene of these wonderful kids on the verge of growing into adults and celebrating their Cataldo education, Catholic formation, and Christian values. These were underlined in the well-prepared speeches given by the class Valedictorians: they recounted their struggles to grow up in earlier years and the wonderful discovery this year of how good it is to be friends instead of enemies, to speak well of others rather than badly, to cooperate and collaborate, above all, to love one another.

As they take their faith and values into their high school years at Gonzaga Prep. Lewis and Clark, or Ferris, I am sure they will be lights to others and show forth the Way of Jesus to their new classmates and peers. As we did that night, we continue to pray for them and all our graduates as they go forth to new adventures in their young lives. We pray for their families, too; may their parents and siblings continue to form them so well through their own lives of kindness, compassion, mutual respect, and faith in God!

Congratulations, Class of 2017!

Fr. Kevin
