A Word from Father...

Dear Friends,

As the saying goes, Christmas ain't over until its over! Well, I suppose that is not really a "saying", but it makes the important point that for Christians, Christmas is not just a single day (plus an "Eve"), it is an entire season of the Church year. Yes, it begins as Advent ends, with the Vigil of Christmas after sunset on December 24th, but it continues through the further feasts of Saint Stephen (December 26), the Holy Innocents (December 28), Mary, Mother of God (January 1), the feasts of the Holy Family and Epiphany, (dates for both vary). The weekdays following Epiphany are included and some argue so is the Solemnity of the Lord's Baptism. In other words, don't you dare take that Christmas tree down until tomorrow!

The much more important point, of course, is that celebrating the great mystery of the God of all Creation taking on our human flesh and joining us here as one of us is too great to be limited to just one day. Today's Christmas-season feast of the Epiphany marks the more particular truth that now among us, he makes himself a companion not just of his Jewish sisters and brothers, but of Gentiles as well, "Gentiles: being a gentle word for foreigners, outsiders, heretics, unbelievers, sinners, migrants, etcetera. This God-Among-Us, God-With-Us, God-In-Us, is truly among, with, in all of us!

As the wise magi from a faraway land recognized in Jesus the presence of the divine, so we too on this feast delight in a God we can touch, we can hear, we can speak to, we can embrace and be embraced by. We too bring him gifts that come from deep within our hearts: faith, hope, and uncompromising love.

Christmas ain't over until its over, the apocryphal saying goes, and so even today and especially today, on this feast of the Epiphany, we continue to celebrate the lovely truth expressed in the opening chapter of John's Gospel:

"And the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us, and we saw his glory..."

Fr. Kevin
