The Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends,

The first week of May the priests of the diocese gathered together for a week-long retreat. It was a blessing beyond words. We had an exceptional retreat master by the name of Fr. Brett Brannon from the Diocese of Savannah in Georgia. One priest after another commented that this was the best retreat that we've ever had!

I'd like to pass along a few quotes he left us with. I hope you will find them both inspiring and helpful.

1. People don't care how much you know until they know how much you care about them...about them. - Zig Ziegler
2. Jesus is never outdone in generosity.
3. Yes, God always does whatever I ask Him, because I always do whatever He asks me. - St. Therese of Lisieux
4. God does not grant, even to the saints, the prerogative of avoiding every sin. - Cardinal John Henry Newman
5. God love me; God loves you; God loves us no matter what we do. - Msgr. Richard McGuinness
6. Humility is gracefully accepting one's place in the plan of God.
7. The water in the baptismal font is only deep in the middle. Too far to the left or to the right, the water gets shallow.
8. Only three steps in the spiritual life: loving trust, total surrender, joy. - St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta
9. The pious soul prays not to inform God but to be conformed to His Will. - St. Augustine
10. To lose one's way is nothing more than the giving up of prayer. - St. Teresa of Avila
11. You will have peace of soul when the person you are, is the person you want to be, is the person other people think you are. - Archbishop Fulton Sheen
12. God who created you without your will, will not save you without you. - St. Augustine
13. If the biographies of the saints included their vices as well as their virtues, they would be double in length! - St. Alphonsus Liguori
14. If you add up all the goodness of every good person who ever lived, it would not equal the goodness of Jesus. - St. Alphonsus Liguori
15. The only success recognized by God is Christ-likeness. - St. John Paul II

Friends, continue to enjoy the season of Easter and the month of May, which is traditionally dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. May our Blessed Mother grant you all the graces you need at this time of your life.

Fr. Vic
