The Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

I'm writing this on Tuesday, August 1st, and just flipped my calendar over to a new month. The summer is going by quickly, but there is plenty of summertime left between now and Saturday, the 23rd of September when the seasons change.

Speaking about change...

Aggie Patterson, our business manager, will be making a big change in her life this coming fall. Realizing the brevity of life and the fact that her 4 adult children are spread across the country from east coast to west coast, she has made the decision to move to Vermont to live with her oldest daughter and her family. Her last day will be on or around September 15th.

Information like this is undoubtedly a lot to process. I want to express great thanks to Aggie for her wonderful work at Sacred Heart. Her presence here at our beloved parish will be a loss, to say the least. Gratefully, there is plenty of time to wish Aggie well during this time of transition and offer her best wishes and thanks as she gets ready to begin a new chapter in her life.

The position of business manager has been posted and hopefully we will be blessed with the right candidate who is able to start the last week of August or thereabouts, so she/he can shadow Aggie and learn the ins and outs of the job.

Continue to take care of yourself and one another. Enjoy the blessings of summer. May God continue to bless you and your loved ones.

Fr. Vic
