The Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

Greetings from Denver! I'm in the Mile High city attending the Diocesan Fiscal Management Conference. The conference is great, as is the weather - sunny and highs in the mid-to-high 80s. Wish I could be spending more time outside than in a conference room!

There is a great line-up of speakers. I will highlight one. Her name is Sr. Maris Stella and she is the Vicar General of Sister of Life. She was our first speaker and got us off to a wonderful start by getting us to focus first on the spiritual before the business-side of things. Sister gave an inspiring testimonial of Christ-centered servant leadership.

Here are some of her takeaways:

- Remember who you are. You were created by love.
- Jesus knows our sins, but calls us by name. Satan knows our name, but calls us by our sins.
- Peter went fishing all night and caught nothing. He listened to Jesus when he said to cast his net into the deep and then brought in a huge catch of fish. Lesson: God can do for us in an instant what we cannot do by ourselves in a lifetime.
- It is easy to lose sight of eternity. We must become souls of prayer.
- The eyes of a Christian look deep into eternity. Don't focus on the temporal. Keep eternal perspectives before you. Remember what St. Frances de Salles once said: Everyone needs to pray at least 30 minutes a day - unless you are very busy. If that's the case, you must pray 1 hour!
- Allow yourself to be refreshed daily in Christ's love.

You are with me in thought and prayer. See you this weekend!

Fr. Vic
