Fruitful Harvests Vocations Workshop

Join Catholics from across the diocese who want to help foster vocations in their own parishes.

The goal of this one-day workshop is to help parishioners learn what it takes to launch a Vocations Team in their parishes and come back home with a practical plan to hit the ground running! Then, the Office of Vocations is committed to making sure that each Vocations Team that launches from this workshop receives regular out-side support to succeed in the coming year.

Attendees can expect the following at the Nov. 4th workshop at St Peter, Spokane:

- Learn what they can do to promote vocations in their parish.
- Plan how to put ideas into practice as part of a team.
- Meet those who are also striving to promote vocations in parishes from across the diocese.

This event is free to attendees and will include morning refreshments and lunch. For more information and to register go to <https://spokanevocations.org/events-page/vocations-workshop/>
