Third Week of Lent

A Season for Reflection

RAISING CHICKENS TO SUPPORT HER FAMILY

Nowadays, in Morazán, El Salvador, it is very difficult to know when the rainy or dry seasons will be. The unpredictable weather puts the livelihood of Sandra's family in jeopardy. Despite the challenges, Sandra and her husband, Santos, remain dedicated to ensuring their children grow healthy and succeed in school. Learn how their strong family dynamic enabled Sandra to participate in a Catholic Relief Services' project on raising chickens and how her determination has helped her family and community.

The Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend's Gospel demonstrates just how much zeal Jesus has for His Father's House.

Having zeal for Our Lord, our Church (the body of Christ) and her sacraments are what can truly feed our souls.

The world needs us – people, young and old – who commit to give witness to our faith in Jesus Christ by the lives we live and the words we speak.

Throughout the centuries holy men and women joyfully embraced their faith, often in times that were dark and dangerous. And often, as well, in ordinary times, making the ordinary look extraordinary! Their zeal inspired others who had lost, or were on the verge of losing, hope.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seaton said that one of the reasons she became Catholic was because she saw her friends living their faith. After she became Catholic, she was so zealous for the Lord that she founded the first congregation of religious sisters in the United States!

Friends, we are in it for the long haul!

Let's live our faith in joy, trusting with all our hearts that Jesus Christ is with us every step of the way!

Blessings of peace and joy,

Fr. Vic
