The Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends,

I hope you are able, should you wish, to get away for a vacation to your liking.

Sometimes we are unable to get away for many reasons, so I'm glad that the word "stay-cation" has entered our vocabulary! A lot of us enjoy staying home or close by and take advantage of doing many things that, in the normal course of the year, we haven't been able to do.

If we can't travel to a particular destination in God's Creation that we want, don't forget that reading a good book or seeing a good show/documentary can "transport us" to that destination and we can feel like we are already there!

I had always wanted to see New York City, but when growing up we just didn't have the means to travel. However, for years I read all about New York City, absorbing information about the Big Apple like a sponge. Finally, decades later when I made my first (and only!) trip there, it seemed like I had already been there – the familiar buildings, the fast pace, the crowds, the excitement! I felt more like a local than a visitor!

Books, movies, documentaries, and the like are wonderful blessings and can be read or watched in the comfort of our own homes.

On a spiritual level, staying in touch every day to Our Lord in prayer and in reading the Gospels and other books of the Bible can "transport us" to where we are so close to Jesus – our heart speaks to His hear, and His heart to ours. And the big surprise will be when we leave this earth and are called home to Eternity. Heaven will far surpass our highest dreams, yet I'm sure part of it will seem like we already been there!

I wish you all a wonderful week.

Fr. Vic
