8-Day Ignatian Retreat With Fr. JK Adams, S.J.

July 23, 2024. 4:30 PM—July 30, 2024 1:00 PM

This 8-day retreat will be a deep dive into the graces of the Spiritual Exercises of Saint Ignatius Loyola. Its organizing principle will be what lies at its center – to know, love and serve Jesus Christ. The retreat structure will be a balance of presentation, personal reflection, sharing and sacramental nourishment.

Cost $952 per person

Limited scholarships for this retreat are made possible through a grant from the Fr. Nigro endowment through the Ministry Institute.

The Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends,

As I write this to you it is Tuesday, July 16, which is a day set aside to honor Our Lady of Mount Carmel. On Mount Carmel, the prophet Elijah defended Israel's faith. In the 12th century, hermits withdrew to the mountain and lived a life of prayer. They later founded the Order devoted to the patronage of Mary.

In our diocese, we are richly blessed to have religious orders serve us. I'm especially reminded today to give thanks to God for the Carmelites. We have 2 contemplative Carmelite Sisters, whom I got to know very well during my time in Pend Oreille County, where they live.

We are blessed to have Jesuits serving in our diocese, primarily at Gonzaga University and Gonzaga Prep. Several of the Jesuit priests serve in our parishes, either full-time or as substitutes when pastors are away. We have been blessed over the years to have devoted and faith-filled religious sisters, namely, the Holy Names Sisters, the Sisters of Providence, the Franciscan Sisters, the Dominican Sisters, The Sisters of Mary, Mother of the Church, the Missionary of Charity Sisters, the Poor Clare Nuns, and Carmelites whom I mentioned above. I apologize in advance if I happen to be missing any from my list.

At the end of June, just a few weeks ago, Bishop Daly celebrated Mass at St. Francis of Assisi Church in north Spokane. That was the last weekend for Father Michael Blackburn, Franciscan priest and pastor of the parish. He moved out-of-town and will be serving in another diocese. We say goodbye to the Franciscans as we now have no Franciscan priests serving us. May the Lord abundantly bless Fr. Blackburn and all the other Franciscan priests who served our diocese with such dedication.

And may the Good Lord abundantly bless all religious priests, sisters, contemplatives, and nuns who have, and still do, serve the Diocese of Spokane.

With love,

Fr. Vic

Blessings
