The Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends and Visitors,

It's hard to believe I'm writing this Pastor's Corner to wish you a relaxing and enjoyable Labor Day weekend. It seems like yesterday when I wished you a happy Memorial Day weekend and good start to the beginning of summer!

I'm especially remembering our students today and all students who will begin a new school year. May this year be especially blessed for them, especially those who will be attending new schools. May the Wisdom of God and the art of teaching be given to teachers and may they instill a love of learning to the students entrusted to their care. Teachers have a very important and noble job. I can remember most all of my teachers to this very day!

On Labor Day we give thanks to God for our jobs and livelihood and remember those who are unemployed and underemployed. May they soon be giving the opportunity to put their gifts to good use.

Have a wonderful weekend, everyone! Rest well and eat well, and always give thanks to God, the Giver all good Gifts.

Fr. Vic
