Remembering our Beloved Dead

As Catholic, we believe our community of faith reaches beyond this earth to those who have died and gone before us in faith. During the month of November, we especially remember our family and loved ones who have preceded us in death. You are invited to add their names to our Book of Remembrance, located in the vestibule, so that we may all pray for our dearly departed loved ones throughout the month of November.

Reconciliation

Father Vic is available for the Sacrament of Reconciliation every Saturday from 4:00 - 4:45 pm, Sunday morning from 9:30 - 9:45 am, or by appointment throughout the week. Also from 9:00 - 9:30 am on the First Friday of the month.

The Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends,

Many of you remember the long pontificate of Pope St. John Paul II and recall much of what he had to say. He reminded us over and over to not be afraid. He also spoke that every human being could be a saint.

Last Sunday, October 20, Pope Francis canonized 14 new Saints at St. Peter's in Rome. 3 of them founded religious orders, one was the father of eight, and there were Franciscan friars who were killed in Syria for refusing to renounce the Catholic faith.

Pope Francis referred to these new Saints as "servants of their brothers and sisters." He went on to say that they were "creative in doing good, steadfast in difficulties, and generous to the end."

Friends, becoming saints mean that we grow in holiness. It is not a "one and done" thing; holiness involves daily conversion. Like all saints, we try and we fail. Yet there is something inside of us that pushes us forward and, with God's grace, helps us remain faithful. Remember that God uses our lives (the good we do and even the sins we have committed and have repented from) to bring about abundant fruit.

So grateful to be among saints-in-the-making here at Sacred Heart!

Fr. Vic
