Called To Share Bread For Life

Holy Week, a sacred time in the liturgical year, invites us to journey with Christ through his Passion, Death and Resurrection. As we witness the Last Supper and Jesus' gift of the Eucharist, we are reminded of our call to be bread broken for others. Let us draw strength from the Bread of Life and dedicate ourselves to serving our sisters and brothers who bear heavy crosses, bringing hope and the joy of the resurrection to the world. The Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends,

We are in the final stretch of the Lenten Season, beginning this weekend with Palm Sunday. This weekend begins Holy Week.

On Monday evening, we will be having our Lenten Reconciliation Service, which begins at 5:30 pm. Please seriously consider attending. It is a wonderful way to enter Holy Week and prepare our souls for the great day of Easter.

During the Reconciliation Service we will listen to the word of God, sing praises to God, and then humbly examine our conscience before individually confessing our sins to one of the five priests who will be in attendance. This Sacrament of Reconciliation is the Sacrament of God's Mercy. He is waiting for us.

Bishop Skylstad will be our homilist for the 5:30 Holy Thursday Mass. Please join us. The sacred oils that were blessed at last Tuesday's Chrism Mass will be presented.

Our Good Friday Service begins at 12 noon. It is remarkable way to meditate on the passion of our Lord's death, meditating on, and remembering, what He did for each of us.

This will bring us to the Easter Vigil, which begins on Saturday evening at 8:15 pm and our 10 am Easter Sunday Mass.

Blessings to each of you as you make this year's Holy Week holy.

Fr. Vic
