The Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends,

On Monday we received word that Pope Francis died. In his statement on the death of Pope Francis, Bishop Daly wrote, in part:

"Perhaps the greatest legacy which Pope Francis left the Church was his emphasis on mercy. The Holy Father created hundreds of Missionaries of Mercy throughout the world and intended these priests to be living signs of God's love and welcome to all those seeking forgiveness. The fact that he designated three priests to be Missionaries of Mercy in the Diocese of Spokane demonstrated his fatherly care for our local Church."

A Mass for the deceased pope was offered by Bishop Daly at the Cathedral on Thursday, April 24th. The funeral Mass for Pope Francis is scheduled to be held in Rome on Saturday, April 26th.

Pope Francis touched the hearts of countless souls during his pontificate. We mourn his loss, pray for the repose of his soul, and pray for all the Cardinals in their discernment on selecting a new leader for the Catholic Church.

*Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord.
And let perpetual light shine upon him.*

A blessed Divine Mercy Sunday to each of you.

In hope and prayer,

Fr. Vic
