The Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

A warm welcome to each of you as we celebrate the Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, formerly known as Corpus Christi. This feast matches up beautifully with the feasts from the last two weekends - Pentecost and the Most Holy Trinity – giving us a lovely trifecta!

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ – the Eucharist – is the greatest gift our Lord Jesus Christ could give us. Every single Mass is a Mass of Thanksgiving to God.

Last weekend the Diocese of Spokane kicked off the Seminarian Formation Appeal. It is particularly wonderful to know that we have 19 men who are in the seminary and, God willing, will one day be ordained as priests to joyfully offer their lives in service to God and the Church. Last Sunday it was great to have one of the seminarians, Nicholas Sund, speak to us after Mass. Didn't you love the comment he made about Sacred Heart being the most welcoming parish he has ever been to!

I am especially honored this weekend to celebrate the 25th Anniversary of my Ordination. To God, be glory forever and ever! I'm humbled and deeply grateful to all of you who make my priesthood the blessing that it is. I especially want to thank those who came from other parishes/towns to attend. To one and all, a thousand thanks.

I look forward to our BBQ after the Sunday Mass. I can't thank enough the cooks, planners, and volunteers for making this happen. To them, a thousand thanks.

Fr. Vic
