The Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends,

One topic that catches the attention of people of faith is prayer.

There are countless books on prayer and we can regularly find retreats and podcasts that present different ways to pray. I find them helpful and always pick up something new and inspiring.

There is never a place in which we cannot pray! One of the best places to pray is at Mass, when we pray with, and for, others. I enjoy praying with someone who is in hospice or in a hospital bed. They so appreciate the prayers. I am edified when I go into a restaurant and see people say grace before eating or when I see a small group at a coffee shop with the Bible opened and they are sharing the Word of God. Jesus himself told us to go into a quiet room and pray. Many of you have a favorite place in your home where you pray, whether that be in the living room, in your bedroom, in the den, on the deck, or on your front porch.

We are never too old to learn something new about prayer - different ways and different places to pray!

Prayer helps us to remember what is really important in life.

Continue to stay close to the Lord. And let's continue to pray for one another.

I wish you and your loved ones a blessed week.

Fr. Vic
