The Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends,

Each month the Holy Father asks for our prayers for a specific intention. For the month of October, Pope Leo XIV, is asking us to pray for collaboration between different religious traditions.

Please also prayerfully remember women and men experiencing or impacted by mental health issues along with those who accompany them. The US Catholic Bishops have a Novena for Mental Health that can be prayed anytime during October, but especially from October 10 to October 18. The Novena seeks to raise awareness and remove the stigma connected to mental illness. The Novena concludes on October 18, which is the feast day of St. Luke, who is the patron saint of health care.

To find the Novena, please go to:
USCCB.org/mental-health-novena.

Next Friday is the first Friday of the month. Hence, we will have adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from 9 - 10 am (after our 8:30 am Mass). I am also available for confessions on the First Friday of the month from 9 - 9:30 am.

I hope and pray this finds all of you doing well.

With sincere appreciation and gratitude for the blessing you are,

Fr. Vic
