Silent Day of Prayer On the Joys of Heaven

Sister Mary Eucharista, SMMC
November 13, 2025, 9:00 AM - 3:00 PM

Unexpected Glory: What Awaits Us in Eternal Light.

"The glory of God is man fully alive." This quotation from Saint Irenaeus describes how our being fully awake to the Lord and living life to the full in God's will is the recipe for sanctity. Natural and supernatural joys along with perfect fulfillment in the Resurrection of the Body are not topics that are spoken enough about in our day. Revelations of the saints along with documented stories of those who have died and come back (near death experiences) assist our understanding of the joys that our faithful God promises to those who trust Him. Included will be Holy Mass, the Sacrament of Reconciliation, two conferences, lunch, the recitation of the Rosary and Adoration before the exposed Blessed Sacrament

Blue Envelope Fund

Thank you for your generosity in donating to our Outreach Fund throughout the year! Your donations to the Blue Envelope Fund has helped us support our 99202 neighbors in need with their power bills, rent, and city utilities, as well as other neighborhood charities like Meals on Wheels, Family Promise, and Women's Hearth. Besides using an actual Blue Envelope, you can also use our on-line giving page on our website, just note in the comment line, "Blue Envelope".

Remembering our Beloved Dead

As Catholic, we believe our community of faith reaches beyond this earth to those who have died and gone before us in faith. During the month of November, we especially remember our family and loved ones who have preceded us in death. You are invited to add their names to our Book of Remembrance, currently located in the vestibule, so that we may all pray for our dearly departed loved ones throughout the month of November.

"Gratitude lifts our eyes off the things we lack so we might see the blessings we possess." —Max Lucado

Have you ever felt lost and alone, isolated in guilt? Like the Prodigal Son among the pigs, we know that we have sinned. But God won't leave us there - he searches for us and runs to welcome us home in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Like the Prodigal Son, let us say "I will return to my Father's House."

Forgiven: The Transforming Power of Confession, explores the grace and healing offered in Confession and shows how this sacrament of mercy reveals the depth and bounty of God's love. By looking at God's revelation of his mercy in Scripture and making a step-by-step examination of the Rite itself, Forgiven communicates God's invitation to each one of us to come experience his indescribable love in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

The Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends,

The month of October is coming to a close and November is within reach!

November 1st is All Saints Day, a holy day of obligation. However, since it falls on Saturday, there is no obligation to attend Mass.

November 2nd is All Souls' Day, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. We remember and pray for the holy souls in purgatory.

Please take good care of yourselves during these cold days. It seems like winter, but fall has barely just begun. A reminder: if you are not feeling well and/or are coming down with a cold or have flu symptoms, please refrain from drinking the precious blood of Christ from the chalice at communion time. It is also very appropriate to refrain from shaking hands during the sign of peace. A simple head bow to the folks next to you is acceptable and a blessing. Missing Mass on the weekend if you are sick is not a sin; most all of you, if not all of you, know this – but it is worth repeating.

Wishing you all a wonderful Sunday and a good week.

Fr. Vic
