Immaculate Heart Retreat Center

Love is Lord of Heaven and Earth

Fr. Emmerich Vogt
December 5 at 7PM - December 7 at 1PM

In Sacred Scripture Jesus refers to His Father as "Lord of Heaven and Earth" and we know from St. John, the beloved disciple, that this God, who is Lord of Heaven and Earth, is Love personified. Thus Love is Lord of heaven and earth. This should be a source of great consolation to us Christians for it means that whatever happens in our lives, God would never do anything contrary to love or to our salvation. He is on our side. This retreat explores the meaning of this truth for our daily lives.

Please Register in advance: at

The Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends,

November is a packed month, liturgically speaking! We started off with All Saints Day on the 1st and celebrated All Souls' Day last weekend. (A reminder to all of us that we especially remember the deceased during throughout the month. If you can, please make a visit to a cemetery and offer prayers for the faithfully departed).

This weekend we celebrate the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome, which is the Catholic Church's first basilica. It is the Pope's Cathedral and it has pride of place as the "mother and head of all the churches in the city (of Rome) and the world."

On the weekend of the 22nd and 23rd we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King, which brings our liturgical year to an end. That is followed by Advent, November 30. Advent is the beginning of the new liturgical year.

Although not a religious holiday, we can't forget Thanksgiving, which is such an important part of our American culture. We'll celebrate our Thanksgiving Mass at 10 am on Thanksgiving Day.

Here is an intention we can take to prayer this month. It is Pope Leo's prayer intention for the month of November: "Let us pray that those who are struggling with suicidal thoughts might find the support, care, and love they need in their community and be open to the beauty of life."

Wishing all of you the love, joy and peace that comes from following our Savior, Jesus Christ.

Fr. Vic

If this happens to you please blow out the candle and punk piece and relight just the candle. Thank You!
