Love is Lord of Heaven and Earth

Fr. Emmerich Vogt
December 5 at 7PM - December 7 at 1PM

In Sacred Scripture Jesus refers to His Father as "Lord of Heaven and Earth" and we know from St. John, the beloved disciple, that this God, who is Lord of Heaven and Earth, is Love personified. Thus Love is Lord of heaven and earth. This should be a source of great consolation to us Christians for it means that whatever happens in our lives, God would never do anything contrary to love or to our salvation. He is on our side. This retreat explores the meaning of this truth for our daily lives.

The Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends,

It seems like a good time to follow up on this year's Annual Catholic Appeal. To those who have made your pledge, many thanks to you.

For those who haven't yet pledged, I write to ask you participation in this year's ACA, centered on the theme, "How can I repay the Lord for all the good he has shown me?" These words invite us to reflect on the countless blessings we have received and to consider how we might respond with generosity and thanksgiving.

Our parish has been given a goal of $78,845 for this year's appeal. Everyone's involvement makes a profound difference - not only for our own community, but for Catholics across the diocese. Every contribution is a meaningful sacrifice that strengthens our bond as the Body of Christ and supports the important work of our Church, such as youth ministry, Catholic education, support for our clergy and those discerning vocations, mission and outreach, and diocesan leadership that guides us with wisdom and care.

Contributions can be made online at dioceseofspokane.org/aca, mailed directly to the Diocese of Spokane, 525 E. Mission Ave., Spokane 99202, or by simply placing your gift in the collection basket during Mass, clearly marked for the ACA.

Thank you for the prayerful consideration for all the ways you support our parish and the wider Catholic community. Your generosity is a testament to your faith and your desire to repay the Lord for all the good He has shown us.

With sincere thanks,

Fr. Vic
