ON-LINE GIVING

shparishspokane.org/donate

Our Tree of Sharing will be up next weekend! This year, again, our Social Concerns Committee is working with Mother Teresa Haven which offers housing/support to numerous families and is located near Spokane Falls Community College. We will be providing gifts to about 50 children. We will also again have about 25 tags for special needs adult residents of Blair House, Milford House, and L'Arche.

We thank you in advance for picking up one or several tag(s) on the tree in the church vestibule. Our goal is to provide gifts to each person for whom we have a tag. If a tag lists multiple gift ideas, please pick only one of the gifts – you need not provide everything on the list.

For Mother Teresa Haven gifts, these gifts will be distributed at an all-family party prior to Christmas. Because everyone will be opening their gifts together, we ask you to: 1) Please choose only one selection if there are several items on the tag; 2) Please spend in the range of $20-$30 for each gift, so the children will receive gifts of similar value. Any gift certificates should be $25 each.

Please, it is very important that you return your gift(s) with the tag(s), and that all gifts are returned no later than Sat/Sun, December 13th/14th.

Again, we are grateful for your willingness to help make Christmas special for our neighbors who have little. Your participation is truly appreciated.

PS: Please contact Mary Kay Anderson (509 990-6914) or Yvonne Shulman (509 993-3141) if you would like to help with the details of this activity.

Advent Day of Prayer Pilgrims of Hope

Fr. Maria Lazar, HGN

December 11, 2025, 9:00 AM - 3:00 PM

As Advent 2025 unfolds and the Jubilee Year of Hope beckons us forward, we gather as pilgrims of faith - journeying together toward the radiant light of Christ, who comes to dwell among us. In a world shadowed by conflict, division, and uncertainty, this sacred day provides a moment to pause, pray, and rekindle within our hearts the flame of enduring hope.

As we stand at the threshold of a new beginning, may our shared prayer draw us closer to Christ and to one another, as companions on the road of faith. United in the Jubilee spirit of mercy and renewal, let us journey onward as true Pilgrims of Hope, bearing the promise of new life to all we meet.

Please join us as Fr. Lazar leads our Advent Day of Prayer, guiding us a pilgrims of hope.

Please Register in advance: at

The Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends,

Our Gospel today reminds us of Good Friday, doesn't it? It doesn't seem to fit on a Sunday when we honor Christ the King. Jesus hangs on a cross, broken, and looking helpless. The sign posted above his head on the cross ("This is Jesus Christ, King of the Jews") is meant to mock him.

For us Christians, we are to see the cross of Christ as the sign of victory. He endured suffering and death to save all humanity. Jesus was victorious to the very end.

As we gaze with love on the cross, we can ask ourselves: is there any one, or any thing, that has authority in our life other than Christ?

At each Mass we celebrate, the high point is the Eucharist, that Greek word that means thanksgiving. We give thanks to Jesus for his ultimate sacrifice of dying on the cross and we praise him for all the blessings we possess. We surrender ourselves to Jesus and commend to him our loved ones, living and deceased, and place before him our own intentions.

We'll be celebrating Thanksgiving Day this Thursday. If you can, please come our Thursday morning Mass at 10 am. It will be a great way to start Thanksgiving Day!

I wish you all a wonderful week and I count each of you as a great blessing.

Faithfully in Christ,

Fr. Vic
