Dear Parishioners and Friends of Saint Teresa Church,

Summer goes by too fast, so make sure you plan for all the big days and happy things you want to enjoy. And when you do, make a note about the major Marian feast of the summer: THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY INTO HEAVEN. Her August 15 home-coming feast this year is in ten days, on a Wednesday. We will celebrate Masses Tuesday afternoon August 14, at 4pm, and Wednesday at 7am, 8:30, 12 Noon, and 7:30pm.

Today, this first Sunday of August, could also be the day for you to plan a special activity for yourself for the first Sunday of October. On Sunday, October 7 we will be having a new parish celebration - a special Mass and a Parish Benefit Luncheon. The Mass is at 10am, the party starts at Noon. Our Committee Members invite you to use the page in this bulletin to check details and secure your reservation for the gala luncheon at The Staaten Restaurant.

We are doing this new annual celebration to draw attention to our amazing young saint - "The Little Flower" who lived quietly and died young, from tuberculosis at the age of 24. But her fame spread like wildfire at the beginning of the twentieth century. Sister Therese of Lisieux died in 1897. By 1925 she was declared a Saint. That was when the Archbishop of New York, Patrick Cardinal Hayes, was preparing to establish a new parish in Castleton Corners, and did so in March, 1926. (In 1923, he had established Saint Nicholas Chapel for the growing community in Sunnyside.) When declared by Pope Pius XI to be a Saint, our parish was privileged to be given her name, though spelled differently, and invited to make her the special helper - the Patroness - whose assistance we could ask for.

You know how you can be surprised at a wedding or a funeral to hear stories about your family that others knew, but you had forgotten or never heard? I suspect that there are lots of things about Saint Teresa that we never knew, or, have forgotten. Focusing on our Saint, stirring up our devotion to her, having a special time to appeal for her powerful intercession: all of these are part of the purpose for you to be involved in our October 7 events.

The date of October 7 was chosen to be close to her official feast-day on the Roman Calendar: October 1. In small villages everybody could stop working and celebrate the patron's holyday, thus making it a holiday. But I don't think you could get off from work or school that easily. So we do the next best thing: transfer the celebration to the nearest available Sunday. With the universal Church we will honor our Saint on Monday October 1—and honor her again on the Sunday when more of our people can come together to pray and to play.

This year, when I saw that there would be a four day retreat in July that centered on Saint Teresa, I signed up. I have been re-reading her best-selling autobiography: STORY OF A SOUL. And straightening up my bookshelves, I came across a forgotten pamphlet titled A Handbook of Novenas to the Saints. It is published by The Catholic Truth Society of England. The 3 euro price tag reminded me that I bought it in Rome when I went there for the canonization of Saint Kateri Tekakawitha. I found it again at just the right time for us. For this booklet has 32 beautifully-written novenas to help people celebrate the lives of saints and to ask for the help of these great people of Catholic faith, hope, and love. Officially canonized Saints are people we are very confident are alive with God in heaven.

Let me borrow from this booklet a clear explanation about the origin and goodness of novenas. A Novena is a way of praying, usually for a particular need or desired grace. It consists of prayers said over nine days. The model for all novenas is the nine days between the Ascension of Jesus into heaven, and the coming of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost. A novena is often made to ask for the intercession of a saint. The same or different prayers can be used; what makes it a novena is that something is done for nine consecutive days. Each saint experienced certain events or difficulties, and their example gives us some example or encouragement. A key part of the novena is the pause when you get to mention, silently or aloud, the particular reason you are making this novena. Your petition can be for others or for yourself. Once you give this some thought, your list of intentions may grow large.

Next week I will print here the Novena to Saint Teresa that I found in this booklet for you to use, if you want. You can pick any season or day to start, but there is no time like the present to do something good. You can begin your novena on the day you read it in the bulletin. And then you can do it again before our feast day celebration.

Yours in Jesus Christ our Lord,

WELCOMING FATHER PHILIP

Today you may meet a visiting priest who will stay with us until mid-September. Father Philip Amankwa-Danquah has been a priest for thirty years, and is now a professor at the Catholic University College of Ghana. While earning his doctorate in pastoral counseling at Fordham University, Father Philip served very admirably as administrator of Saint Charles Borromeo Church in Harlem. This visit is giving him a chance to visit his sister in Illinois, and will help us to take some vacation time too.

CHANGING OF THE GUARD

Today's 10am Mass will be offered by Father Jean-Marie Uzabakirho, who is the moderator of our altar servers. This Mass will mark the last hurrah for three excellent young people who have been serving Mass in our parish for many years. We are happy to salute Mary Mastoros, Aidan O'Brien, and Syleste Alexander, who have served Mass all through their high school years, and will be going to college this fall.

This summer has also seen the changing of the guard for the two Masses at Saint Nicholas Chapel. Nicholas Gofas has been our loyal server at 9:30 Mass for years.

Now his sister Alexandra is old enough to take over. And at 10:30 Mass, high schooler Christian David has been training his brother Tyler for this privileged role.

Our congregation and priests thank all of our Mass servers, and praise their parents for enabling and encouraging them to serve the Lord and their parish.

Serving at the altar is a chance to be closer to the action of the Mass and to assist at Mass in a special way. Young people grow in self-confidence as they work with other young people and serve the parishioners. Father Jean-Marie will be training new servers in late September, and we hope for many new altar servers.

TODAY IS FOOD PANTRY SUNDAY

Sister Margaret Mary Food Pantry continues to be an important source of food for many of our neighbors. Thank you to all who give something after Mass on the First Sunday of each month.

ARE YOU READY FOR A CHANGE?

If you are planning some time away this summer, please consider signing up now to provide your weekly donation electronically when you're away. It's easy to do and makes a big difference for our parish. Besides us receiving your contributions each Sunday, this saves you preparing those envelopes. It also saves us money printing and distributing them!

To see how easy this is, please click on the ParishPay/WeShare link on our website saintteresasi.org for the details.

The winners of our July 50/50 Drawing was: Mr. and Mrs. John Coakley. The prize was $313.

If you would like to participate in this monthly activity that benefits our parish and makes people happy, look for the 50/50 envelopes in the vestibule. The next drawing will be at the end of August.

Gospel Today Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time | John 6:24-35

To the crowds Jesus called Himself "The Bread of Life." They did not understand He meant "spiritual life", which came by believing in Jesus, who was sent by God.

©2018 Bon Venture Services, LLC

Jesus said to them

"I am The Bread of Life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst."

- JOHN 6:35

We have: The Body of Christ (communion), to nourish our souls/spiritual life.

We have: Bread to eat, (flour, water, yeast) to nourish our bodies/physical life.

Let's cook up something fun, for adults and children together...

EASY TO MAKE FRESH PIZZA DOUGH

Makes one 12" pie • Preheat oven to 400°

Ingredients

Dough: 6 oz. warm water • 1 tbsp. sugar • 1 ½ tsp. dry yeast • ¼ tsp. salt
1 tbsp. olive or cooking oil • 2 ¼ cups flour

Toppings: Your choice, tomato sauce or fresh sliced tomatoes spread over dough.
8 oz. mozzarella or your favorite cheese. Optional - meat, vegetables, spices.

Directions

In a mixing bowl add water, sugar and yeast. Stir, let sit 15 minutes to activate yeast. Add oil, salt and flour, mixing well (if needed add a few drops of water). Knead 8-10 minutes on a floured surface. Put floured dough ball in a bowl and cover to rise, about 1 hour. Roll dough on floured surface into a 12" circle and put on baking sheet. Top with your favorites and bake for 10-12 minutes or until done.

Note: Flour, bread crumbs or cornmeal on pan help prevent pizza from sticking.
