NEXT SUNDAY'S SCHEDULE OF MASSES FOR PRIESTS

4pm, 7:30am, 9am, 10:30am, 12:30pm Monsignor Belford
5pm Father Challman

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Saint Teresa Church,

Father John Kallattil, a member of the Vincentian Congregation of Kerala, India, has gone for a visit to India to see his relatives and priests of his religious order. We look forward to his return at the end of November. Just as we did last November, our Sunday Mass schedule will stay the same. We will have usual 8:30 Masses on weekdays and Saturdays, and Confessions on Saturdays from 12 to 1. The biggest change is that we will have no Noon Masses on weekdays until Father John returns. The church will be open as usual for private prayers until about 1pm each day.

Our Holy Name men have been preparing for our beautiful annual CHRISTMAS TREE REMEMBRANCE of lovely, uniformly-lit Christmas trees on our prominent corner of Victory Boulevard and Slosson Avenue. This Christmas tree display is not only a joyful and consoling message of hope and peace for passers-by. It is first and foremost a statement of our Christian faith, and a witness to our belief in the awesome importance for the world of the birth of Jesus Christ, the Son of God who is our Lord and Savior.

Our display of Christmas trees on our corner, and the Nativity scene that will be set up in front of our church, are valuable parts of the resistance we should have to those who want to strip religion of its important place in public life, or to make religious celebrations only commercial or trivial. Quite a few people who are not parishioners have told me over the years - some of you also feel it and say it - that our Christmas display lifts hearts and gives people a sense of peacefulness and thanksgiving as they get off the highway and pass our corner in their bus or car.

The Holy Name Society men have ordered fifty handsome, high-quality trees, and will be setting them up on our corner on the Saturday after Thanksgiving. The next weekend they will bring out the strings of brightly colored lights and wrap them around the trees. And then on December 9th, following our 4pm Saturday evening Mass, many people will meet at the trees, and we will have our traditional countdown and tree-lighting celebration, with music and songs and hot chocolate for all. Everyone is welcome.

We are able to supply this every year for our neighborhood because dozens of parish families sponsor a tree, sometimes in memory of loved ones, and are honored to have their names placed on the tree. The donation is still two hundred dollars, as it has been for years. Proceeds have been used by our Holy Name men to purchase the new Nativity statues, stable and other Christmas decorations. Those who wish to support this annual effort - with the Holy Name men doing all the work and supplying all the elements - are asked to return the form that you can find on page 5.

Finally, even though we are aware of tragic world events, of evil actions and so many people suffering and fearful - especially the innocent people caught in the fighting in Israel and Ukraine, and for whom we must offer constant prayers and sacrifices - we still need to smile once in awhile as we hear of some of the amazing things that God has done for families.

My first example is about Representative Mike Johnson, who is the new Speaker of the House. In his impressive speech to Congress after being chosen, he spoke about his trust in God's plans, and alluded to his belief that his road to Congress was paved by his God-fearing parents. In fact, elsewhere we learn from the Speaker that his parents conceived him when they were just juniors in high school. They dropped out of school, to have him and keep him. They worked and sacrificed, finished school, and raised him in a Christian household. And that is why he says he is so pro-life today. He is a living example of God's faithfulness, because his parents trusted God and gave him his chance to live.

And then there is the surprising story of Jasmine, Jessica, and Juliet Turner. The parents of these three little girls are Jeremy and Sauhry Turner, and the five of them live in Ocala, Florida.

Jasmine was born on September 3, 2020. She weighed approximately seven and a half pounds, and was twenty inches long. Jessica was born on September 3, 2021. She weighed approximately seven and a half pounds, and she was twenty inches long. Juliet was born on September 3, 2023. She weighed approximately seven and a half pounds, and was twenty inches long.

How rare was this—to have three siblings born years apart but on the same date? According to an article I read in THE WEEK magazine of October 6, these are the odds of three siblings having the same birthday: 48,627,125 to 1.

Confidently yours in Jesus Christ our surprising Savior,
Msgr. William Belford
