NEXT SUNDAY'S SCHEDULE OF MASSES FOR PRIESTS

Monsignor Belford 4:00pm, 7:30am, 9:00am,
10:30am, 12:30pm

Father Challman 5pm

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Saint Teresa Church,

The small number of priests to serve parishioners in our Archdiocese will be affecting us here at St. Teresa Church for the next month. Our Father John Kallattil, V.C., a priest of the religious order called the Vincentian Congregation, will be going to India to visit his family and religious order beginning this week through the month of November. I will offer all 8:30am Masses Mondays to Saturdays, funerals, confessions and other services, but we will not have our regular weekday Noon Masses, beginning October 28. Father Steven Challman will be helping me with some Masses on Sundays. Our full Sunday schedule—Saturday 4pm, Sunday 7:30am, 9 at St. Nicholas, 10:30, 12:30pm, 5:00pm—stays the same.

We also looked ahead to some special circumstances. Next Saturday is November 1—All Saints Day. When this feast falls on a Saturday it is not a holyday of obligation because there is little chance for people to fulfill an obligation. We have Mass at 8:30am, then possibly a funeral, confessions from 12 to 1, and we have a wedding. And at 4pm we have Mass for Sunday. And looking ahead to First Friday on November 7: we will have the usual two Masses at 8:30 and at Noon, to be followed by Veneration of the Blessed Sacrament with Benediction at 3pm.

This Fall has been a special time for Saints. On October 5, we focused on our Patron Saint Teresa, whose short life (1873-1897) and great example captured the hearts and minds of many Catholics – so much so that in 1925 she was canonized, and our new parish began with her name the next year. On September 7 in Rome, Pope Leo XIV (the Fourteenth) canonized two young men of great faith, hope, and charity, calling them models for all of us, but especially for young people to make something great of their one time on earth. Here are parts of Pope Leo's homily:

Today we look to Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati (1901-1925) a young man from the early 20th century, and to Saint Carlo Acutis (1991-2006), a teenager from the 21st century, both of them in love with Jesus and ready to give everything for Him.

Many young people over the centuries have faced a crossroad in their lives. Think of Saint Francis of Assisi- young and rich, thirsty for glory and fame. Francis went to war, hoping to be knighted and adorned with honors. But Jesus appeared to him along the way and asked him to reflect on what he was doing. Coming to his senses, he asked God a simple question: “Lord, what do you want me to do?” From there, he changed his life and began to write a different story: stripping himself of everything to follow the Lord (cf. Lk 14:33), living in poverty, preferring the love of his brothers and sisters in faith, especially the weakest and smallest, to his father’s gold, silver and precious fabrics.

How many similar saints we could recall! Sometimes we portray saints as great figures, forgetting how it all began for them. Saint Augustine recounts that in the “tortuous and tangled knot” of his life, a voice deep within him said: “I want you” (Confessions, II, 10,18). God gave him a new direction, a new path, a new reason, in which nothing of his life was lost. So too with a young adult from the early 20th century, and a teenager from our own day, both in love with Jesus and willing to give everything for him.

Pier Giorgio Frassati encountered the Lord through his school and church groups — Catholic Action, the Conferences of Saint Vincent, the Italian Catholic University Federation, the Dominican Third Order. He gave witness to God by being a Christian in prayer and charity. His friends seeing him walking the streets of Turin pushing carts full of supplies for the poor renamed him “Frassati Impresa Trasporti” - Frassati Transport Company!

Even today, Pier Giorgio’s life is a beacon for lay spirituality. For him, faith was not a private devotion, but it was driven by the power of the Gospel and his membership in ecclesial associations. He also contributed to political life and devoted himself ardently to the service of the poor. His death was from poliomyelitis, something he probably caught from a poor person he was helping.

Carlo, for his part, encountered Jesus in his family, thanks to his parents, Andrea and Antonia — who are here today with his two siblings, Francesca and Michele — and then at school, and above all, in the sacraments celebrated in the parish community. Carlo grew up integrating prayer, sport, study and charity into his days as a child and young man.

Both Pier Giorgio and Carlo cultivated love for God and for their brothers and sisters through simple acts that are available to everyone: daily Mass, prayer, and especially eucharistic adoration. Carlo used to say: “In front of the sun, you get a tan. In front of the Eucharist, you become a saint!” And again: “Sadness is looking at yourself; happiness is looking at God.” Another essential practice for them was frequent Confession. Carlo wrote: “The only thing we really have to fear is sin.” And in his own words: “People are so concerned with the beauty of their bodies, and do not care about the beauty of their souls.”

Finally, both had a great devotion to the saints and to the Virgin Mary, and they practiced charity generously. Pier Giorgio said: “Around the poor and the sick, I see a light that we do not have.” He called charity “the foundation of our religion” and, like Carlo, he practiced it above all through small, often hidden, concrete gestures.

Even when illness struck each of them and cut short their young lives, not even this stopped them from offering themselves to God, praising him and praying to him for themselves and for everyone. One day Pier Giorgio said: “The day of my death will be the most beautiful day of my life.” And in a last photo which shows him climbing a high mountain, with his face turned towards his goal, he wrote: “Upwards!”

Dear friends, Saint Pier Giorgio Frassati and Saint Carlo Acutis are an invitation to all of us not to squander our lives, but to direct them upwards and to make them masterpieces. These saints encourage us with their words: “Not I, but God,” as Carlo used to say. And Pier Giorgio: “If you have God at the center of all your actions, then you will reach your goal.” This is the simple but winning formula of their holiness. It is also the type of witness we are called to follow, in order to enjoy life to the full and to meet the Lord in the feast of heaven.

A PRAYER FOR THIS WEEK

That our loved ones will not be too stubborn to listen to the Word of God, or to follow the directions God gives us for our eternal happiness, let us pray to the Lord...

MASS BOOK RESERVATIONS FOR JANUARY TO JULY 2026 WILL OPEN THIS THURSDAY OCTOBER 30. Many people faithfully commemorate the dates of loved ones' anniversaries of birth or death or other special days in their lives by requesting a Mass for their intention in our church. Coming to Mass on those days and praying to God for loved ones expresses our connection with them, and we who remember them also benefit from praying for them.

So:

The Parish Mass Book for January to July 2026 will be open in the rectory on Thursday October 30 beginning at 10am for those who want to come in. Any questions, please call Lisa at 718 442-5412.
