Prayer to Saint Kateri Tekakwitha

St. Kateri Tekakwitha, favored child and Lily of the Mohawks, I come to seek your intercession in my present need: (mention it). I admire the virtues which adorned your soul: love of God and neighbor, humility, obedience, patience, purity and the spirit of sacrifice. Help me to imitate your example in my state of life. Through the goodness and mercy of God, Who has blessed you with so many graces which led you to the true faith and to a high degree of holiness, pray to God for me and help me.

Obtain for me a very fervent devotion to the Holy Eucharist so that I may love Holy Mass as you did and receive Holy Communion as often as I can. Teach me also to be devoted to my crucified Savior as you were, that I may cheerfully bear my daily crosses for love of Him Who suffered so much for love of me. Most of all, I beg you to pray for me that I may avoid sin, lead a holy life and save my soul. Amen.

Saint Kateri Tekakwitha Church

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: II Kings 4:42-44

A man brought twenty loaves of bread to Elisha the prophet, who told his servant to distribute it to the people. The servant asked how he could offer twenty loaves to one hundred people. Elisha replied that God had said, "They shall eat and there shall be some left over." After all the people had eaten, there was bread left over as God had said.

Second Reading: Ephesians 4:1-6

Paul implores the Ephesians to live a life worthy of their calling by preserving unity among all of Christ's followers. He reminds them that there is one body, one Spirit, and one God who works through all people.

Gospel: John 6:1-15

Jesus fed a crowd of five thousand people with five loaves of bread and a couple of dried fish. After everyone present had enough to eat, twelve baskets of leftover bread were collected. Jesus then realized the people would want to make him king so he fled alone.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 26, 2015

"But the servant objected, 'How can I set this before a hundred people?' Elisha insisted, 'Give it to the people to eat. For thus says the Lord 'They shall eat and there shall be some left over.' And when they had eaten, there was some left over, as the Lord had said."... "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish"...When they had had their fill, he said to the disciples, 'Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted.'"

At a time of picnics and alfresco dining, reading from the book of Kings and the gospel of John is most enjoyable. In both cases we learn that we can use our resources whether abundant or scarce to touch the lives of others. Whether it be the one hundred or the 'large crowd' people had a hunger, a need, and there were gifts to be given to change their lives. When we gather for Eucharist, gifts are brought to the altar. They represent our ability to offer something for the needs of others, who have a hunger we can satisfy, not just bread and wine, but care, concern, support and understanding. People are hungering for peace, justice, work, freedom. We cannot overlook them, for we are the resources to produce change. Don't waste food; recognize the Christ in the homeless and hungry. Provide for the many charities who depend on us. The question remains: 'What are the five loaves and two fish I have' and 'what I am doing with them?'
