Prayer to Saint Kateri Tekakwitha

St. Kateri Tekakwitha, favored child and Lily of the Mohawks, I come to seek your intercession in my present need: (mention it). I admire the virtues which adorned your soul: love of God and neighbor, humility, obedience, patience, purity and the spirit of sacrifice. Help me to imitate your example in my state of life. Through the goodness and mercy of God, Who has blessed you with so many graces which led you to the true faith and to a high degree of holiness, pray to God for me and help me.

Obtain for me a very fervent devotion to the Holy Eucharist so that I may love Holy Mass as you did and receive Holy Communion as often as I can. Teach me also to be devoted to my crucified Savior as you were, that I may cheerfully bear my daily crosses for love of Him Who suffered so much for love of me. Most of all, I beg you to pray for me that I may avoid sin, lead a holy life and save my soul. Amen.

From the Pastor's Desk...

Every priest is required to make an annual spiritual retreat at least for a week. This annual retreat practice for us is to step aside from all the worries of the parish ministry, to spend time with God in prayer and reflection and to energize our souls, mind and body for better life and ministry to God's people. Priests are free to make use of the many forms of retreat available to them. Some choose common retreats for a group of priests in a retreat center preached by a retreat preacher. Some opt to go for one on one guided retreat by a retreat director. Some prefer silent retreat under the guidance of a retreat master. This annual retreat is absolutely essential and helps us to examine our lives rededicate ourselves for God and his people.

In our Archdiocese, for the past few years, a new form of annual priests' retreat is offered. It is called Archdiocesan Priests Pilgrimage Retreat. About 20 or 25 priests travel together as pilgrims to another part of the world, visit their churches, shrines, Basilicas and Cathedrals, learn about the origin and the status of the faith and practices and join them in prayer and worship. Most years, His Eminence Cardinal Dolan joins us for two or three days as his schedule would permit. I have always joined these pilgrimage retreats and benefited from them. It has helped me in past years to visit France, Italy, Germany, Mexico, Spain, Poland and six Eastern European nations, their Churches and Shrines.

This year, the pilgrimage retreat is to Portugal and Spain. I have never been to Fatima and this gives me a chance to be in Fatima, Portugal for three days. During this pilgrimage, most of the time is spent praying at different shrines and Basilicas, learning about how faith was brought to them and how they live the faith today. Sometimes I feel how infant our church and faith in the United States is compared to thousand or two thousand years of faith in these countries. Other times, I feel how blessed we are in the United States, that we have almost full attendance at Sunday liturgies, unlike most of these magnificent Cathedrals and Churches, being empty and are only tourist attractions. It is an amazing experience where our visions are broadened, our unity as one body of Christ strengthened, our bonds as brother priests nurtured. Believe me, it is very expensive. Each year, it costs me around $5,000. But it is worth it for the uplifting experience of faith and fraternity. I will be joining this pilgrimage retreat from February 11th to February 20th. In my absence, Fr. Mathew MacDonald and the Deacons will take good care of the parish. I will be united with you in thoughts and prayers. Keep me and our priests in your prayers.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS
HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. ReillyFifth Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 10, 2019

"Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips, living among people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts! He touched my mouth...and said 'See now, that this has touched your lips, your wickedness is removed, your sin purged.' Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send? Who will go for me?' 'Here I am, I said, send me.'"

The call of the prophet and the new vocation of the fishermen can be the image of the call that Jesus makes for us today. We need to respond to the invitation He graciously gives us, to be sent to announce His message. It is easy for us to make excuses, to hesitate, or even flee.

The 'unclean lips' of Isaiah were purified to prepare him for his role. Our own lips are unclean when we use them to criticize, speak ill of others, or complain, or even use bad language. We can use the same tongue to pray, praise and show others His presence in our lives.

Peter speaks for us all as he says: 'but at your command I will lower the nets.' What a surprise, leading him to the humble confession 'depart from me Lord for I am a sinful man.' Jesus responds with the familiar phrase 'Do not be afraid...from now on...they followed Him.'

May we identify with Isaiah, seeking what the Lord asks of us. May we leave our tangled nets, acknowledge the Lord's call and forgiveness, and follow Him.

HOLY LAND PILGRIMAGE

Fr. Matthew MacDonald, Parochial Vicar of the Church of Saint Kateri Tekakwitha, Lagrangeville, NY will be leading a Pilgrimage to the Holy Land from Monday, October 28th - Thursday November 7th, 2019 (11 days) with the Our Lady, Queen of Peace Prayer Group from Long Island, NY and 206 Tours.
