Prayer to Saint Kateri Tekakwitha

St. Kateri Tekakwitha, favored child and Lily of the Mohawks, I come to seek your intercession in my present need: (mention it). I admire the virtues which adorned your soul: love of God and neighbor, humility, obedience, patience, purity and the spirit of sacrifice. Help me to imitate your example in my state of life. Through the goodness and mercy of God, Who has blessed you with so many graces which led you to the true faith and to a high degree of holiness, pray to God for me and help me.

Obtain for me a very fervent devotion to the Holy Eucharist so that I may love Holy Mass as you did and receive Holy Communion as often as I can. Teach me also to be devoted to my crucified Savior as you were, that I may cheerfully bear my daily crosses for love of Him Who suffered so much for love of me. Most of all, I beg you to pray for me that I may avoid sin, lead a holy life and save my soul. Amen.

From Cardinal Dolan...

Dear Friends in the Lord:

It is time again for our annual special offering for the Church in Latin America. Although the people are faith-filled, the needs in this region of the world are great-and often seem insurmountable. The distance between rural areas and deteriorated roads make it difficult for some communities to have Mass celebrated regularly. Language barriers can make catechetical materials difficult to produce. We are called to share our faith with all, and today's collection is a prophetic and bold way to do it.

For the past fifty years, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has helped 25 countries in Central and South America to confront challenges to the faith. With the support of all the Catholic faithful, we have funded activities that promote an encounter with Jesus Christ so that the faithful can become missionary disciples.

On the very same weekend, June 15 and 16, we are also conducting the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. The Church has great needs around the world and the United States is no exception. Many dioceses here at home face challenges due to priest shortages, lack of funds, remote geography, or impoverished parishes. Forty-two percent of all diocese in the USA receive Catholic Home Missions support for evangelization, catechizes, ministry formation, and other areas of faith development. Your support of this collection will help our neighbors strengthen the Church at home to continue to provide essential pastoral outreach in home mission dioceses.

I am counting on your usual generosity again this year. Your support for each of these collection is vital. When you contribute, you become an instrument of peace and join with other Catholics in solidarity with the needy.

With prayerful best wishes, I am,

Faithfully yours in Christ,
Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

PENTECOST SUNDAY*First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

The disciples were celebrating Pentecost together when "tongues of fire appeared which parted, then came to rest on each of them." The disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit and began speaking in foreign tongues. Visitors from many different countries were amazed that each guest could hear his or her native language being spoken as the disciples proclaimed God's glory.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Each person has received different manifestations of the same spirit to contribute to the common good of all. All members of the church have been baptized into one body because of our belief in the Holy Spirit, who was sent to us by God.

Gospel: John 20:19-23

Jesus appeared to the disciples even though they had locked the doors in fear. Jesus then showed the disciples his hands and his side; and they rejoiced at his presence. He breathed on them saying "Receive the Holy Spirit." He then gave the disciples the power to forgive others or hold them accountable for their sins.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGSHIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly*Pentecost Sunday*June 9, 2019

"In the same way, the Spirit too comes to the aid of our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groaning. And the one who searches hearts knows what is the intention of the Spirit, because he intercedes for the holy ones according to God's will."

The promised Spirit has come and gives life to the church. Pentecost was not just an event or experience, but the beginning of a movement which continues to this very moment. The visible of wind, fire and noise may have subsided but the event becomes our experience.

The movement which began in the upper room, spread to the streets of Jerusalem, and moves us today. Our church, enlivened and motivated by the same Spirit summons us to go out and transform a world seemingly distant from the gospel and its values. The Spirit, living in us, yearns to touch the lives of others. Because of the Holy Spirit we too have been changed, let the Spirit move you, or as Paul says 'don't stifle the Spirit.' We are accountable.
