Our Sanctuary Lamp

The Sanctuary Lamp, which is next to our Tabernacle, is a sign of the Real Presence of Jesus, the Light of the World, in our Parish Church. In accordance with tradition, this candle may be dedicated in honor or in memory of a particular person or persons, or for a special intention. The customary offering for this weekly dedication is $20. There are several dates still open for dedication in 2020 Book. Anyone who would like to plan for dedicating the Sanctuary Lamp should contact the Parish Office.

The Sanctuary Light for this week is donated in loving memory of Marie and Carmine Taverna requested by Robert Taverna.

BREAD AND WINE

We are accepting offerings for the Bread and Wine for the week in memory of your loved ones. The customary offering for this weekly dedication is $20. Any questions, please call the Parish office 718-351-1093.

The Bread and Wine for this week are donated in loving memory of Marie and Carmine Taverna requested by Robert Taverna.

All SaintsNovember 1st, 2020

What a blessing it is to have people we can look up to. We really need living examples of people who have heard their vocation and responded to it with joy. There are still many openings. Please apply yourself. If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priest-hood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM "The World Needs Heroes"

ALL SAINTSFirst Reading: Revelations 7:2-4, 9-14

John recounts for us the details of his vision. An angel bearing the seal of the living God demands that the land and sea not be destroyed; huge crowds stand before the throne of the Lamb crying out that salvation comes from God; angels gathered round and praised God; an elder questions John and explains that those dressed in white are the ones who have survived the great period of trial.

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-3

Once again John speaks to us of love. He points out to us the great love that the Father has for us by allowing us to be called children of God. John explains that the world doesn't recognize us because it never recognized Jesus. Our future will be revealed to us and in that light we shall see him as he is.

Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12a

When Jesus saw the crowds of people he went up to the mountainside gathered his disciples around him and began to teach them. This lesson in love has come to be known to us as the great "Sermon on the Mount" or "The Beatitudes."

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGSHIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. ReillyAll Saints Day*November 1, 2020.

"See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called children of God. Yet so we are... Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we will see him as he is. Everyone who has this hope based on him makes himself pure, as he is pure... 'Rejoice and be glad for your reward will be great in heaven.'"

It's time for elections. I do not refer to politics, but I choose a friend of the Lord, as my special saint. It might be my patron, Francis or Clare, it may be Mary or Teresa the Little Flower. How about a saint of our time, Saint Faustina, Saint Pope John 23rd, Oscar Romero or Mother Teresa. How about Juan del Rio, the Cristero. Why is this one special to me?

They lived the scripture passage above, and their hope and Jesus' promise has been fulfilled. This is why we celebrate today. Make your choice, choose to be a saint today.

Revealed
in Light

From the Pastor's Desk ...

All baptized Christians who have died and are now with God in glory are considered saints. All Saints Day is intended to honor the memory of countless unknown and uncanonized saints who have no feast days. Today we thank God for giving ordinary men and women a share in His holiness and Heavenly glory as a reward for their Faith. This feast is observed to teach us to honor the saints, both by imitating their lives and by seeking their intercession for us before Christ, the only mediator between God and man (1 Tim 2:5). The Church reminds us today that God's call for holiness is universal, that all of us are called to live in His love and to make His love real in the lives of those around us. Holiness is related to the word wholesomeness. We grow in holiness when we live wholesome lives of integrity, truth, justice, charity, mercy, and compassion, sharing our blessings with others.

Let us remember and pray for our dearly departed loved ones. Come to our weekday Masses to continue to pray for our departed family members. The indulgence we receive for these intentions is extended through the whole month of November.

Congratulations to our raffle winners and thanks to everyone who bought chances to win. This was tremendous support for our parish. This was especially appreciated due to our deficit due to this pandemic. Thank you for your continued love and support for your parish.

Advent Memorial wreaths will be available soon and will be placed on the church parking lot fence. Let us continue to keep each other in our prayers for peace and ask for grace from Our Lady to continue to bless our hearts.

Fr. Dominic.

PARISH STEWARDSHIP

We are grateful to all who contribute so generously each week. We do recommend that you use parish envelopes or Weshare. Please call the rectory to register.

Sunday Collection(Oct. 18 th)	$5,232.00
Shrine Candles	$86.00
World Mission Sunday	$1,208.00

Thank you for your support and generosity.

REMEMBER YOUR PARISH IN YOUR ESTATE PLAN

Include Our Lady Queen of Peace and Our Lady of Lourdes as a beneficiary of your retirement plan. This is a terrific way for you to support OLQP and OLL. Please call a gift planning specialist at (646)794-3317 to discuss this interesting opportunity or email plannedgiving@archny.org.

Election Eve Prayer Vigil

There will be two all-night prayer vigils for the elections. One will be at St. Charles and one will be at Our Lady of Pity. They both will start at 7pm on November 2nd with Mass celebrated by Bishop O'Hara at St. Charles and Bishop Byrne at Our Lady of Pity. The vigils will continue through the night with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. Both vigils will end with Masse at 5:00am on November 3rd.

Angelus

The Angel of the Lord declared onto Mary.
And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary...

Behold the handmaid of the Lord

Let it be done to me according to your word.

Hail Mary...

And the word was made flesh.

And dwelt among us.

Hail Mary...

Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray: Pour forth, we beseech you, O Lord, your grace into our hearts, that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ your Son was made known by the message of an angel, may by his passion and cross be brought to the glory of his resurrection. Through the same Christ Our Lord. Amen

"National Vocation Awareness Week will be celebrated in our country November 1-7, 2020. Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated, holy priests, deacons and consecrated men and women. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of a vocation."

Manresa Columbiettes

Calling all OLQP ladies. You are invited to join the Manresa Columbiettes. We are the Catholic Women's auxiliary of the Knights of Columbus. Our mission is to support people and organizations right here on Staten Island. Through fundraisers, such as Bling, Swap and Radio Bingo, Spring Teas, Nite at the Races, Dine to Donate, Vendor Nights and more, we raise needed funds to help our Staten Island neighbors in need while having fun and meeting great new friends. Our Auxiliary also hosts a monthly Rosary night and masses with the Knights. We hold meetings in person and for now on Zoom. We meet on the second Wednesday of each month and we are looking for ladies wanting to give back while having fun. Please contact Connie De Francesco at 917-903-8703- or Bonnie Ferretti at 718-351-3266 to learn how you can join one of the biggest and best Auxiliaries on Staten Island. We look forward to hearing from you.

PRAYER FOR THOSE WHO SERVE IN THE ARMED FORCES

Lord Jesus, Savior of the World and King of Peace, watch over our sons and daughters in the service of their country. Protect them from the physical and moral dangers of military life. Keep them close to You and help them live in such a manner that is pleasing to You. Lord Jesus, give them courage to serve their country with honor and dignity. Be with them when they are in danger, strengthen them when they face hardships. Above all Lord, grant that when their service is finished, they may return to us sound in mind, body and soul. And Lord, for those who give the ultimate sacrifice with their lives for serving their country, please, touch and minister grace and healing to their families. Amen.

PRAYER DURING AN EPIDEMIC

Lord Jesus,
Hear our pleas, our Good Shepherd and Divine Physician. We implore your mercy in the wake of an outbreak of serious illness and disease. Guide our efforts to prevent contagion and make preparations to care for those most vulnerable. Assist all professionals and volunteers who work to eradicate the epidemic now spreading. May our actions be marked by your steadfast love and selfless service and never by panic or fear. Bestow your comfort and healing to the sick, sustain and strengthen them by your grace. May they know your closeness as they carry the cross of illness. And may all who have been called from this life come to worship you eternally with all the saints as you grant consolation and peace to their mourners. Amen.
Hail Mary, Health of the Sick, pray for us. St. Joseph, Hope of the Sick, pray for us. St. Rocco, protector against epidemics, pray for us.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Let us all rejoice in the Lord, as we celebrate the feast day in honor of all the Saints, at whose festival the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of Revelation

I, John, saw another angel come up from the East, holding the seal of the living God. He cried out in a loud voice to the four angels who were given power to damage the land and the sea, "Do not damage the land or the sea or the trees until we put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God." I heard the number of those who had been marked with the seal, one hundred and forty-four thousand marked from every tribe of the children of Israel. After this I had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice: "Salvation comes from our God, who is seated on the throne, and from the Lamb." All the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures. They prostrated themselves before the throne, worshiped God, and exclaimed: "Amen. Blessing and glory, wisdom and thanksgiving, honor, power, and might be to our God forever and ever. Amen." Then one of the elders spoke up and said to me, "Who are these wearing white robes, and where did they come from?" I said to him, "My lord, you are the one who knows." He said to me, "These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the Blood of the Lamb."

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

R. Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

The Lord's are the earth and its fullness; the world and those who dwell in it. For he founded it upon the seas and established it upon the rivers.

R. Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

Who can ascend the mountain of the Lord? or who may stand in his holy place? One whose hands are sinless, whose heart is clean, who desires not what is vain.

R. Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

He shall receive a blessing from the Lord, a reward from God his savior. Such is the race that seeks him, that seeks the face of the God of Jacob.

R. Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

SECOND READING

A reading from the Letter of Saint John

Beloved: See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. Everyone who has this hope based on him makes himself pure, as he is pure.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him. He began to teach them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven."

The Gospel of the Lord.
