NOVEMBER 17—THE HOLY SPIRIT'S GIFTS OF KNOWLEDGE AND PIETY

GOD'S WORD: "An intelligent heart acquires knowledge, and the ear of the wise seeks knowledge" (Proverbs 18:15). "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction" (Proverbs 1:7).

"The Spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; It is the spirit of sons, and It makes us cry out 'Abba, Father!'" (Romans 8: 14-15).

The gift of KNOWLEDGE is one of the seven infused gifts of the Holy Spirit. By the illuminating action of the Holy Spirit it perfects the virtue of faith. It gives a person the ability to judge everything from a supernatural viewpoint. The object of this gift is the whole spectrum of created things insofar as they lead one to God. Through infused knowledge the faithful can see the providential purpose of whatever enters their lives, and they are able to put creatures to the right use according to God's will for themselves and others. Sometimes called "the science of the saints," it enables those who have the gift to discern easily and effectively between the impulses of temptation and the inspirations of grace (Fr. John Hardon, Modern Catholic Dictionary). The gift of PIETY is a special gift of the Holy Spirit. It perfects the virtue of religion, which is the practice of justice toward God. It produces an instinctive filial affection for God and devotion toward those who are specially consecrated to God. As an infused gift of God, it is ready loyalty to God and the things of God. This loyalty arises not so much from studied effort or acquired habit. Rather, it comes about from a spiritual communication conferred by the Holy Spirit. This gift enables a person to see in God, not only one's sovereign Master but a loving Father. According to the teaching of St. Paul: "Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The Spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; It is the spirit of sons, and It makes us cry out 'Abba, Father!'" (Romans 8:14-15). It engenders in the soul a filial respect for God, a generous love toward Him, and an affectionate obedience that wants to do what He commands because it loves the One who commands (Fr. John Hardon, Modern Catholic Dictionary).

HEROES' WORDS: "We judge all things according to the divine truth" –St. Augustine

"We are such value to God that He came to live among us and to guide us home. He will go to any length to seek us, even to being lifted high upon the cross to draw us back to Himself. We can only respond by loving God for His love" –St. Catherine of Siena

"In so far as divine love beautifies our souls and makes us pleasing to His divine Majesty, it is called grace; in so far as it gives us strength to do good, it is called charity; but when it reaches such a degree of perfection, that it makes us not only do the good, but do so carefully, frequently, and readily, then it is called devotion" –St. Francis de Sales

a hundred people,
feed just one.

MOTHER TERESA

Hour of Power/Friday Adoration: 11/17/19

Meditations with Saint Augustine

"God Loves to Save"

The reason why many things are kept for judgment while some things are judged here and now is in order that those whose cases are deferred may fear and be converted. For God loves saving, not condemning, and therefore He is patient with bad people in order to make them good.

Please call Ken Cantwell (620-3675) or the office to sign up for weekly adoration before the Blessed Sacrament. and meditate and marvel on the PATIENCE Jesus has shown in your life.
