SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER - DIVINE MERCY

Acts 4:32-35 They were of one heart and mind.

Psalm 118 "Give thanks to the Lord for He is good, His love is everlasting."

1 John 5:1-6 Whoever is begotten by God conquers the world. John 20:19-31 Eight days later Jesus came and stood in their midst.

"Peace be with you." Three times the newly risen Jesus greets the ones He loves with these words. It is both His greeting and His wish. Today we get a glimpse of the early church, the close-knit community who were "of one heart and mind," sharing what they had so that no one was in need. Let us be of one heart and mind ourselves, merciful and generous, as we extend greetings and wishes to our neighbor: "Peace be with you."

MEMORIAL CANDLES & BREAD & WINE

Interested in memorializing the Sanctuary Candle by the Tabernacle or for the Virgin Mary, Our Blessed Lady? These candles, which burn continuously, could burn for your specific intentions. Today is Divine Mercy Sunday. St. John Paul II put the devotion on the Church's universal calendar for the Sunday after Easter. St. Faustina Kowalska is the Polish nun who promoted the Divine Mercy devotion and was canonized by St. John Paul II in 2000. The devotion began in the late 1930s by St. Faustina, who had a vision of Jesus where he asked for devotions to divine mercy. Divine Mercy, gushing forth from the bosom of the Father, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, greatest attribute of GOD, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, incomprehensible mystery, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, fountain gushing forth from the mystery of the Most Blessed Trinity, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, unfathomed by any intellect, human or angelic, I trust in

You. Divine Mercy, from which wells forth all life and happiness, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, better than the heavens, I trust in You. Divine Mercy, source of miracles and wonders, I trust in You. # Divine Mercy Sunday "Do this in memory of Me."

"When the hour came, Jesus took His place at table with the apostles. He said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer, for, I tell you, I shall not eat it again until there is fulfillment in the kingdom of God." Then He took a cup, gave thanks, and said, "Take this and share it among yourselves; for I tell you that from this time on I shall not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes." Then He took the bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is My body, which will be given for you; do this in memory of Me." And likewise the cup after they had eaten, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood, which will be shed for you." (Luke 22:14-20)

"Do this in memory of Me." The glory of the Holy Mass, begun on Holy Thursday at the Mass of Our Lord's Last Supper in an unbloody manner, continued through the horror of the bloody sacrifice of Jesus on the Cross, is forever captured in the Risen Body of Jesus. Our Savior, "Once I was dead, but now I am alive forever and ever," (Revelation 1:18) bears the marks of the Crucifixion on His hands and feet (Luke 24:30). As Jesus is the Living Mass, the Word of God revealed to us and the Sacrifice on the Cross offered for us, the Holy Mass continues into eternity with the Risen Christ bearing the Wounds of the Cross. Saint Paul in his First letter to the Corinthians wrote, "For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night He was handed over, took bread, and, after He had given thanks, broke it and said, "This is My body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of Me." In the same way also the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until He comes." (11:23-26) Let us note that we are proclaiming (in the Holy Mass) Christ's death – the sacrifice on the Cross. Jesus' death is the salvific moment of all humanity. Again, Christ has said, "Do this in memory of Me." So we must offer the Holy Mass... and those "many" who have chosen to follow Him, must attend and worship.

The Last Supper is different in the Gospel of John. It does not have the Institution Narrative that we have above from Luke's Gospel. You will recall, that outside of the four chapters dedicated to Jesus' final words to His disciples, there is the Washing of the Apostles Feet, "So when Jesus had washed their feet and put His garments back on and reclined at table again, He said to them, "Do you realize what I have done for you? You call me 'teacher' and 'master,' and rightly so, for indeed I am. If I, therefore, the master and teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash one another's feet. I have given you a model to follow, so that as I have done for you, you should also do." (John 13:12-15) In other words, "Do this in memory of Me."

In the Last Supper, Jesus has answered and explained the question of the Scribe about which is the greatest commandment, "The first is this: 'Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone! You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.' The second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." (Mark 12:29-31) Through our worshipping God in the Holy Mass, by our gathering as this Holy Church He created, we are fulfilling the First Commandment. By our washing each other's feet we are fulfilling the Second.

On this Divine Mercy Sunday, in our participation in the Holy Mass we receive the Mercy of God. By our washing each other's feet, we are fulfilling the command of Jesus, "Do this in memory of Me," by being merciful to others. What we receive we are to give. (Matthew 10:8) Let us be a people of mercy, receiving from the Divine and giving to one another.
