A Kaleidoscope

“We are many parts; we are all one body ... the living Body of Christ” (1 Corinthians 12). This is our identity: the WHO we are and the WHOSE we are. We each bring a special set of talents and gifts to the composite. We are a kaleidoscope. Each change in movement, twist, or turn produces yet another beautiful image.

Separately, we are nothing but shards ... broken bits of colored glass. Together we can become an awesome image created by mirrors and angled reflectors. Just as a kaleidoscope requires light and a focus to reveal its inner beauty, so too with us. We need the light of Christ shining on us, and we need Christ as our focal point. Then the mirrors and reflectors of love, acts of kindness, faith, trust, virtue, all things good, mesh together creating an exquisite image with Christ as our focus. Each part of the kaleidoscope is special and talented in its own way, but it is only in the unity of the Body of Christ that we can reach our full potential.

We have continued our journey in the Gospel of St. Luke in these waning weeks in Ordinary Time (Cycle C). We gain more insights into how we should live in order to achieve our final goal: heaven. Everything can be ours if only we keep our focus on Jesus Christ and trust in His leadership. Not everyone receives the same amount of faith, but God gives each of us the exact amount of faith we need to complete the journey.

Sometimes we are challenged with changes, but that is not a reason to be afraid. One of my instructors in seminary described change as a sign of life – not something to fear. Think of change as a new potential pattern in the kaleidoscope of our life. To cope, embrace change, and keep Christ as the focal point. Several years ago we faced a big change in the celebration of our Liturgies when the New Translation of the Roman Missal was first used beginning with Advent 2011. Now it is “old hat.” Even the word “consubstantial” rolls off our tongues with ease.

The Disciples often asked Jesus how to pray; He responded in actual words of prayer or sometimes parables about how God hears our prayers. In the Gospel for today, the 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time (C), Jesus once again uses a parable. In the parable, He contrasts the attitudes of a Pharisee and a tax collector. Jesus praises the simplicity and humility of the prayer of the tax collector: “O God, be merciful to me a sinner.” Jesus proclaimed, “The latter went home justified ... for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.”

May humility and sincerity always be featured virtues in our kaleidoscope.

Christmas Food Baskets

JoCoIHN is an interfaith homelessness intervention program that helps restore stability to motivated and capable "situationally homeless" families in Johnson County. The guests in this program have to meet stringent requirements, and most are self sufficient again within 3-6 months. Curé has supported this program since its inception in 2003. This year, during the holiday season you have the opportunity to bring some relief and joy to qualifying families by donating items or gift cards for Christmas Food Baskets. These Christmas Baskets will contain non-perishable food items for a traditional holiday meal, some extras for kids on winter break, plus some gift cards to local grocers for guests to do some of their own shopping. Stop by our table in the vestibule the weekend of November 2/3rd to retrieve a sponsorship card with the specific items needed. The donations will be collected before Thanksgiving for sorting and assembly. Thank you for your compassion and generosity. For questions or more information please contact Karen McNellis at afjayhawks@gmail.com.

Knights of Columbus

In his greeting to the Knights of Columbus on the occasion of their Supreme Convention in Minneapolis, Minnesota last August, Pope Francis wrote: "In the vision of Father Michael McGivney, unity and charity were to be the hallmark of the Knights of Columbus. Over the years, in fidelity to that vision, the Knights have distinguished themselves in service to families, in concern for the poor and underprivileged, and in efforts to contribute to the building of a just and virtuous society, for the extension of Christ's kingdom and the salvation of souls. In a world devastated by violence, injustice and growing polarization, this witness of unity in service to the Gospel has become all the more timely and urgent."
