Merry Christmas!

Glory to God in the Highest and Peace to His people on earth! This truly is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad! A special Christmas greeting to all members of our parish, and a warm welcome to family members and friends who are visiting. May all feel the true presence of Christ in this our home.

Welcome home to those who may not be able to join us each week due to work schedules, or just have gotten out of the habit of coming to Mass. I pray your hearts will journey back to be with us each week, for we truly yearn for your presence. If there is anything I can do to help you on your journey back, please do not hesitate to ask.

For people of faith, Christmas is the celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, our Lord and Messiah, the Savior of the World. Christmas is also the birthday of Christ the Priest. A beautiful theology of the Church sees the womb of Mary, our Blessed Mother, as the splendid cathedral in which the Holy Spirit anointed Jesus as the Great High Priest.

A Heartfelt Thank You

On the evening of December 10, I was deeply troubled and in tears in the Adoration Chapel. Thank you to the very kind woman who acknowledged my suffering and did not shy away. Knights of Columbus

If you believe that the candy cane is strictly a secular Christmas custom, consider this Legend of the Candy Cane (anonymous):

"A humble man wished to use his candy-making art to make a Christmas gift for Christ that came straight from his heart.

First he shaped the candy into a shepherd's staff, a "J" - to stand for the name of Jesus, Who was born on Christmas Day.

He used white stripes to symbolize Jesus' virgin birth and His sinlessness and purity during His time on earth.

Finally, he colored the candy with stripes made out of red, to represent His blood shed to give us salvation and life.

He had created the Candy Cane, to remind us during this season that Christmas is a sweet gift of love - Jesus is the reason."

The Knights of Columbus at Curé of Ars wish you a Merry and Joyful Christmas and a Blessed and Happy New Year!

To join the world's largest fraternity of Catholic gentlemen, simply go to KofC.org/JoinUs and enter our council # 9856 for local information. The only requirement for membership is that you be a practicing Catholic man, age 18 or older.

Eucharistic Adoration at Curé

"Each one of us is a co-worker of Christ - we must labor hard to carry Him to the hearts where He has not yet been known and loved...But, unless we have Jesus, we cannot give Him; that is why we need the Eucharist. Spend as much time as possible in front of the Blessed Sacrament and He will fill you with His strength and His power." -St. Teresa of Calcutta

Come when you can, leave when you must, and may God bless you on your comings and goings. Call 913-558-1187 or email lisawhi@gmail.com to schedule a weekly hour.
