Together -- In Humble Service

I would guess each of us has had one of those embarrassing moments when someone has overheard us say something that was intended only for others. That happened to the disciples one day within the hearing of Jesus. In a debate amongst themselves, the apostles were arguing about who was the most important. When Jesus later asked them about it, they were embarrassed into silence.

The amazing thing about their argument was that Jesus had just explained that He was going to be delivered into the hands of men who would put Him to death. As the humble servant of His Father, Jesus was willing to undergo death, in contrast to those whose only thought was to rise to importance and power. He said to the apostles, "If anyone wishes to rank first, he must remain the last one of all and the servant of all."

The disciples failed to comprehend Jesus' words. To help them understand, Jesus resorted to using a favorite example. In a very poignant scene, He put His arm around a youth and said, "Whoever welcomes a child such as this for my sake welcomes me." Children are a living example of the humility and simplicity we are called to practice.

At an early age, humility and simplicity lead most children to take for granted, in the best sense, that they are loveable. Usually this age is before they go to school and encounter the world of competition. The sad truth is, in school some children begin to lose confidence in themselves. There may be exaggerated expectations to produce, to get good grades. Perhaps they hear, "Why can't you be more like your brother (or sister) who gets all A's." This kind of competition can make one doubt oneself.

As Christians, we must be aware of what is happening in the world today. A mainstay of modern TV is the "Reality Show" where members considered not as good as other cast members are "voted off." We are saturated with sports, which again is full of competition. Don't get me wrong, sports is not a problem in itself. But when things become "cut throat," we need to stop and recognize God's system of values.

We live in a world where greed and power make a person important. We must remember that we are children of the perfect Father, Who indeed loves us for who we are. We must never doubt that His love for us is the source of our worth and our value. Our goal must be to build up the Body of Christ, but not by being divisive, trying to determine who is most important while here on earth. Rather we must follow the example of Jesus, and work together in humble service. For in heaven we are all ONE!

Father Storey

Project Andrew

We are excited to once again be offering an invitation to journey with the Vocation Director and area priests – just like Andrew, Simon, James and John did with Jesus. They didn't settle for one encounter with Christ, but sought a close relationship with him. This high school group will meet regularly for formation, prayer, conversation, brotherhood, and growth in both faith and virtue. The goal is to grow 2 in relationship with Jesus Christ in a way that will prepare you to say "Yes" to the vocation God calls you to, whatever that may be. Project Andrew is Sunday, October 3 from 1 – 4pm at Church of the Ascension in Overland Park, or attend October 10 at Christ the King in Topeka. Come and see how your next few years can be more fulfilling, rather than risk getting lost in the culture and temptations of the day. This is an invitation every young man should take seriously. Register at <https://archkck.org/vocations/events/project-andrew>. Questions can be directed to vocation@archkck.org or call 913.647.0303

Come and see so as to deepen our understanding of Catholic social teaching and its consistent challenge on our faith journey. These Zoom sessions are hosted by St. Elizabeth Adult Faith Formation ministry, and will be facilitated by Biagio Mazza, Pastoral Associate at St. Sabina Parish in Belton, MO on three successive Monday evenings, Sept 13, 20, and 27, from 7-8:30 PM.
