A New Interpretation of the Law

A quick glance at the calendar reminds us that we are only two days away from February 14, Valentine's Day, a day symbolic of love. Pope Francis at his general audience at the end of January conveyed a message of love. He admonished his listeners not to put pressure on others in order to convert them or make them feel guilty. Rather, he encouraged them to follow the example of Jesus, and be joyful in sharing the Gospel. Pope Francis said, "The faith is a stupendous love story to be shared."

Jesus is sharing His own love story in today's Gospel. In St. Matthew's Gospel we continue exploring the Sermon on the Mount. When Jesus saw the crowds gathering, He started up the side of a mountain and His disciples followed. Hence the name "Sermon on the Mount." Jesus begins by giving them a blue-print for happiness: the Beatitudes. This is how they can find true happiness in God by living in a righteous manner. Then Jesus goes on to tell them that if they choose not to live in His way, they are of no use to Him. "If salt loses its taste ... it is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot."

We recall that Matthew's intended audience in his Gospel was the community of Jewish converts to faith in Christ; consequently Jesus' relation to the Law of Moses and the prophets was of great concern to them. Today's Gospel begins with Jesus telling the disciples, "I have come not to abolish but to fulfill" (the law or the prophets). True to Jewish tradition, which emphasizes the importance of action over words, Jesus goes on to tell the disciples, "Whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the kingdom of heaven."

Today's Gospel is very long if read in full; however we can summarize by looking at a major principle that prevails throughout the selection. Matthew demonstrates how Jesus' teachings evolve into a new, better interpretation of the Law.

Jesus does not obliterate the Law; rather He brings it to its fullest development and adds some actions to enhance it. A few examples of the old embellished by the new:

"...If your brother has anything against you, leave your gift there at the altar, go first and be reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift."

"If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one of your members than to have your whole body thrown into Gehenna."

The last few lines of today's Gospel explain how a disciple should be honest and trustworthy, not needing to take an oath. "Again you have heard that it was said to your ancestors, do not take a false oath, but I say to you, do not swear at all ... Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and your 'No' mean 'No.' Anything more is from the evil one."

We, too, can find our roadmap to happiness by following the example and teachings of Jesus Christ. Let us joyfully share this stupendous love story with all we encounter, and let us make our actions speak louder than words, and make our "Yes" mean "Yes."

Marian Reflection

Reading: I spread out my branches like a terebinth, and my branches are glorious and so graceful. Like the vine I bud forth delights, and my blossoms become fair and abundant fruit.

~Sir 24:16-17

Reflection: The grace of Mary is outstanding indeed, superabundant and overflowing.

It gave glory to heaven, begot God on earth, filled the Angels with joy, and brought peace to the world.

~St. Lawrence Justinian

Prayer: O Mary, in you is all grace and you hold the key to the grace of Christ. Obtain for me all the graces I need in my state in life and help me to cooperate with them faithfully.

Knights of Columbus Faith in Action – Faith Programs

The third program area of the Knights is Faith. You have heard in previous weeks of our involvement in Community and Family programs. This week we highlight our involvement in 2022 in programs that support the faith of the parish, faith of men and families in the parish, faith of other organizations in the parish, and faith in the diocese and elsewhere. Our Knights council dispersed over $10,000 and contributed 1647 hours in support of Faith based programs:

- Vocation support – Five seminarians in the Kansas City KS Archdiocese received $1000 each, and correspondence and prayer support for their discernment and study. We reminded the parish regularly of the need to support seminarians in the Archdiocese and worldwide with their prayers. We also contributed almost $2200 to other programs for women and men in their religious vocations and discernment, including support for the seminary in Pakistan.
- Rosary – Knights are encouraged to pray the rosary often. In addition to countless rosaries prayed personally, we lead the rosary twice weekly, at 3:30 PM Saturdays and 8:30 AM Sundays. The goal of these rosaries is the goal of our pastor – to pray for peace in our world and in our community.
- Catholic education – We supported our parish school and youth faith activities. This included funding of school facilities improvement, religious education funds, and service to first communion preparation. We awarded our second annual Msgr. McGlinn scholarship for a Curé school graduate toward Catholic high school. In the past we also have supported scouting religious education programs. We also helped adult education with our literature kiosk, making books and electronic media available to the parish in the church.
- Prayer, study, and retreat programs – Our members spent 1200 hours participating in and supporting programs to strengthen personal faith. We also contributed funding to an Archdiocesan retreat.
- Worship activity – Knights contributed over 400 hours to our Sunday worship as ushers, lectors, extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist, and in choir.

We are happy we can support the Catholic faith for so many and thank you for your support that contribute to these programs and activities.
