Lead all to the Church through the Word, the Sacraments and the Mass.

Add Walk to Lenten Guide

On this First Sunday of Lent, I want to add another four-letter-word to my list of Guide Words for Lent. That word is walk – walk in holiness.

We find ourselves progressing on another Lenten journey, in search of saintliness and holiness. We know from past experience that this can be a long six weeks journey, wrought with trials and temptations. Remember how we concluded last week's Pastor's Notes? It may help us to recall that a three-day trip begins with one day; a week-long trip begins with one day. Our forty days' journey through Lent begins with one day. Take each day – one at a time – and with the guidance of the Holy Spirit make it a day of holiness, a day of saintliness.

Throughout his letter to the Romans, St. Paul writes as a Jew who knows the tradition well, including the account of the fall of Adam and Eve as presented in today's First Reading. In the Second Reading, he attests that sin entered the world through one man – and relates the consequences thereof. Paul presumes his audience knows both the story of Adam's sin and that of Christ's saving death on the cross. Paul unfolds the meaning of this extraordinary manifestation of God's love even for sinners.

We know that we should seek forgiveness through the Sacrament of Penance/Reconciliation, but for way too many of us, we just do not. We create our own roadblocks; we let our pride get in the way. There are three ways to seek and receive forgiveness. The first two come to mind immediately: ask God to forgive us, and ask the forgiveness of others. The third might not be quite so obvious – we must be willing to forgive ourselves. Sometimes seeking forgiveness can be very difficult, but we must remember we are not alone. We must set aside our pride, and place our trust in God.

Today's Gospel relates how the Spirit led Jesus into the desert to be tempted by the devil. Jesus withstood three different temptations by the devil. Then angels of God came and ministered to him. Jesus was not alone.

As we navigate the path of our personal Lenten journey into the desert, we can find ourselves fearful and anxious. We might ask ourselves, "How am I going to handle all these obstacles?" It's OK to have fears, struggles and anxiety. Just remember you don't have to face them alone. I like to remember the words to a song by Rogers and Hammerstein featured in the musical "Carousel."

When you walk through a storm

Hold your head up high

And don't be afraid of the dark

At the end of the storm is a golden sky...

Walk in holiness! Ask the Blessed Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit, to accompany you and guide you on this journey.

Walk on through the wind,

Walk on through the rain

Though your dreams be tossed and blown

Let the Holy Spirit lift your burdens and ease your anxiety and fears:

Walk on, walk on with hope in your heart

And you'll never walk alone.

Father Storey

2023 Guatemala Dental Mission

After a two-year absence due to the pandemic, the Curé of Ars dental mission was able to return for our 24th year. During the five days of the clinic operation, January 28-February 2, we provided essential dental treatment, fillings, extractions, and cleanings to 564 people. We were welcomed by the children and mothers of Manos Amigas, a home for abused women and their children we have served these past years.

In addition to dental care, we distributed clothing to many of the children donated by friends of this project. We are planning to return in 2024 for our 25th year serving the people in Guatemala. On behalf of the dental mission, thank you for your prayers and support all these years.
